In Brief

Santa's coming

Santa will be coming to Romulus at 7 p.m., Friday, Dec. 5.

On that date and time city officials and residents will take part in the annual Christmas Tree lighting ceremonies which will get underway at the City Hall.

Santa will be on hand to exchange season's greetings with the folks and there will be refreshments afterwards.

Closed for the holidays

The Romulus Parks and Recreation Department would like to remind all residents and program participants that all programs held in school facilities will be cancelled on Nov. 27 and Nov. 28 in observance of the traditional Thanksgiving Holidays.

New Xerox for City Hall

Romulus City Hall soon will have a new Xerox 8200 copier that will replace the Xerox 9200 which has served the city for the last five years.

Council last week approved the lease-purchase of the new copier which Raymond Cantrell, purchasing director, said would save the city some $3,500 a year for the five years of the purchase contract.

Mayor William M. Oakley told council that Xerox guaranteed the city a specified trade-in price on a new copier at the end of the five-year period.

Cantrell said the machine would cost $45,700 which would obligate the city to monthly payments of $904.90 for the 60 months of the contract.

Council approved the base-purchase upon the recommendation of the purchasing director.

Guard rail bid okayed

Romulus City Council last week approved the low bid of $2,657 for 110 guard rails submitted by Jensen Bridge and Supply.

Jensen was the lowest of four bidders for the portion of bid which was let. The city had already purchased 100 pieces of guard rails through the state "at a substantial savings", according to David J. Paul, DPW director.

City officials blast Bonds

TV newscaster's criticism unwarranted, they say

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

Bill Bonds, Detroit television newscaster, was hit Monday with a double-barreled refutation of his charges Friday that Wayne County taxpayers were subsidizing overdue payments of Romulus for police services provided by the sheriff.

Bonds' accusations were met head-on by Romulus Councilman Ed Rush and Richard Sullivan, outgoing finance director.

"We were shocked that Mr. Bonds, in editorializing on the subject, held up before his large listening and viewing audience the people of the city of Romulus to such unwarranted and undeserved ridicule," said Rush.

Sullivan, who worked closely with and was familiar with financial aspects of the contracts with the sheriff to provide police services to the city, flatly declared, "The information provided Mr. Bonds by his 'source' was incorrect."

Sheriff William Lucas Monday

said he did not believe that Bonds had all of the facts.

"At present, it's a Catch 22 situation where the city of Romulus is asking the county for an accounting and the county is saying 'we're giving you our charges, take it or leave it,'" said the sheriff.

Lucas said the county is telling Romulus that if it doesn't pay charges it is assessing, then it will discontinue police services by his department.

"It seems deadlocked," commented Lucas.

The sheriff was quoted Friday as saying he would sue the county Board of Commissioners if it adopted a 1980-81 budget that did not contain funds for 200 of his deputies slated for layoff.

Included in the $40 million cut out of the county's tentative budget are contractual police services to Romulus and Plymouth and (Continued on Page A-3)

Santa's coming to town

Although he's not scheduled to arrive at Romulus City Hall until Dec. 5, Santa's already embarked on his journey from the North Pole. And he and his helpers—attractive ones at that—will take part in a host of activities in the area including the spectacular Hudson's Thanksgiving Parade. For the 54th year, Detroit will herald Santa's arrival to the area and the official beginning of the Christmas season will get underway with a festive parade featuring floats, talented bandmen, clowns, dancers and a lot more.

City information officer leaving for Livonia PR post

Jay Young, public information officer for the city of Romulus, will leave city employment soon to accept a position as supervisor of community relations for the Livonia school district.

It was learned that the 34-year-old Young was chosen from some 40 applicants who vied for the job when it was vacated by Jackie Parks.

Young said he expects to assume his new duties sometime within the next month. He will report directly to Supt. George Garver.

Hired near the end of Mayor James Stewart's term of office in February of 1977, Young was the first person to hold the job of public information officer in Romulus.

When Mayor William M. Oakley won election, he retained Young and has kept him in the public relations post ever since.

JAY YOUNG

Young worked closely with the Romulus Roman often writing or giving assistance on stories pertaining to city government and the community. An avid photographer, he also contributed pertinent news photos to the Roman.

Young was hired by ex-mayor Stewart under an anti-recessionary, counter-cyclical federal grant, but in 1978 was paid from the city's general fund.

During his nearly four years with the city, Young cited the following activities as among his primary duties and responsibilities:

1) Planned, coordinated and implemented the eight-day local observance of Michigan Week, which previously had been celebrated as a exchange of mayors with another Michigan city.

2) Devised a public service response system in cooperation with the city's ordinance department to better handle citizen complaints by providing information and service.

3) Worked closely in an advisory capacity with the Romulus Beautification Committee, helping it to win two Keep Michigan Beautiful (KMB) awards as a result of the city's annual cleanup campaign.

4) Served as chairman of the city-school committee, a cooperative venture of the two entities to better utilize tax dollar. In April of 1979, the committee sponsored Romulus Night at the Silverdome, at which John Long, local high school basketball star, now playing with the Detroit Pistons, was honored.

5) Inaugurated the establishment of a city-school quarterly newsletter, "Around the City", which is mailed to all city residents.

6) Helped plan hospitality which was extended to delegates to the 1980 National Republican Convention in cooperation with the Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce.

7) Helped plan such community (Continued on Page A-3)

Sumpter murder victim identified

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

A composite sketch of a man found shot to death in Sumpter Township Nov. 7 and published in area newspapers and on television led to his identification as a 26-year-old resident of Wayne. The deceased was identified as Richard D. Farley, originally of Blissfield in Lenawee County, who had been living with a grandmother and his brother in Wayne for a short time.

According to Det. Ed Lindberg of the Wayne County Sheriff's Dept., police have no strong leads in the case and are asking the public for help in their investigation.

Farley's body was found on the east side of Sherwood Road, north of Wear Road about 10:40 a.m. Nov. 7 by a motorist who lived nearby. He had been shot at least twice in the back at close range with a shotgun.

Lindberg said evidence disclosed that Farley had been shot at the site where his body was found.

He said a friend of the grandmother called her to say she had seen the composite sketch in a local newspaper. About the same time, the grandmother saw another composite sketch by a Detroit police artist on television, Lindberg said.

According to the investigation made by Lindberg and his fellow officer, Det. Jimmy Cranford, Farley was last seen by a brother and two friends in Lucille's Bar on Michigan Avenue in Canton Township between 10 and 10:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 6, the night before his body was discovered.

Lindberg said Farley refused a ride with his brother and said he was going to hitchhike home.

"I might bump into a nice party," he was reported to have told his brother and friends at the bar, Lindberg said.

Police did find out that Farley was unemployed. They could only speculate as to whether he might have been the victim of foul play at the hands of strangers who gave him a lift or whether he got into trouble at a party he stumbled into.

Farley would have had to go east to get back to his grandmother's home in Wayne. However, where his body was found is considerably southwest of the bar where he was last seen.

Popular banquet hall sold

Golden Hall, once a well-known banquet hall in Romulus near Wayne and Vinewood, has been sold almost twice.

Abandoned for many years, the property has been up for sale by the city which now owns it. Two weeks ago, Romulus City Council accepted the highest of two bids from Gary Moore with the contingency that his purchase would depend on whether he obtained a variance of the current zoning for a business operation.

Last Wednesday, Council was informed that Moore would now buy Golden Hall without his condition of a variance from the Board of Appeals.

After discussion, council voted to go along with Moore's latest bid offer.

Councilman Jimmy Raspberry said Moore's latest offer was what he (Raspberry) had recommended to begin with. Once the property is purchased, Moore could proceed along normal channels in his efforts to get zoning changed or a variance granted, he said.

Mayor William M. Oakley said he had no objection and that he was merely extending council the courtesy of informing them of the change in bids on the property.

Council approved a resolution by Raspberry that reflected Moore's latest offer and which deleted wording in the original motion two weeks ago that allowed the contingency for a variance.

A tale of a lost cat

By KAY DeBORD

Where are you "Miss Millie"?

That's what Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peach of Romulus would like to know. "Miss Millie" is a black, long-haired (Persian) cat that has been missing since the Tuesday afternoon before Halloween.

The spayed female is a particular pet of Peach, who has been ill and is slated for major surgery in the near future at the Veteran's Administration Hospital. Both he and his wife are mourning the disappearance of their pet.

"Miss Millie" came to the Peach home on Cordell three years ago, abandoned. She was adopted by the Peaches, and after having a litter of four kittens, she was spayed.

According to his wife, Peach sits for hours on end, watching for the return of his "little girl." And the two have checked with the dog warden, who knew the black cat, and with neighbors in their subdivision.

"We think someone picked her up because she would come flying when we called," Mrs. Peach said. And they wait up with the lights on, check constantly just in case she has come back, and they haven't given up calling at intervals, even during the late hours of the night.

"Even her companion cat, Black Label, a neutered male, calls for her when he is shut in their night quarters," Mrs. Peach said.

The Peaches, who do not drink, have named all their cats after beers. An elderly tabby is named "Pabst," and of course, Black Label, a black Burmese, is "Carling's Black Label." And Miss Millie is formally "Miller's High Life."

Romulus gets another foster care home

The city of Romulus may soon have another adult foster care home.

In his report to City Council last week, Clerk Leonard J. Folmar informed that body that the city had been notified of a proposal to license a foster care facility at 16083 Hollywood.

He said the application for license, submitted by Clyde and Carol Miller, had previously been submitted in February of this year by the same couple, but had been withdrawn in October.

On the license application, the Millers stated the owner of the adult foster care home as the "Miller Dev. Disabled Home, Inc.", 16110 Farnum, Romulus.

As required by state law, Folmar told council that he had notified all residents by mail who lived within 1,500 feet of the proposed facility of the re-application.

Location of adult foster care homes in residential areas as permitted under state law and over which local government have practically no control has generated controversy in many areas of the state.

An adult foster care home built recently on Tobine Street in Romulus stirred the wrath of some nearby residents when first proposed and built. But, latest reports are that the situation has now calmed down.

In most instances, residents do not want handicapped or afflicted persons living in their neighborhood.

CLARENCE RUSSELL

Treasurer who admitted taking $1,000 returns to office

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

Saturday, Sumpter Township Treasurer Clarence Russell did two about faces — taking the oath of office he publicly said he would not take and hiring a new person for the deputy position he reportedly vowed he would not change.

After confessing that he took $1,000 reported missing in water operation funds to cover personal bills, the treasurer appeared before the election at the township board meeting to announce his resignation.

At that time, Russell told the township board and audience that if re-elected he would not take the oath of office for the treasurer's seat.

As lack of time did not permit his name to be taken off the ballot at the Nov. 4 general election, Russell received 1,716 votes, far more than the handful recorded for each of four write-in candidates, to win re-election.

Russell failed to appear for the official swearing-in ceremony for all newly-elected township officials last Thursday conducted by District Judge James B. Stone at the township hall. Instead, he asked that he and his new deputy, Diane M. Schroeder, be sworn in separately.

Saturday afternoon, Clerk Clarence Hoffman, who failed to win re-election, performed the swearing-in ceremony.

Naming of Schroeder, an unsuccessful candidate for trustee nominee in the primary election last August came as a surprise.

None was more shocked than Russell's ex-deputy, Leona Barber. During the time that police investigated the missing water funds, she was subjected to taking a lie detector test and had volunteered to help pay back the money with Russell and another member of the office.

According to Mrs. Barber, she has asked Russell the day after the election about a rumor that he planned to let her go.

"He (Russell) told me that I would have a job as long as he was treasurer," said Mrs. Barber.

However, she said she learned that Russell had told others he was letting Mrs. Barber go, but would retain Cheryl Pless, an accounting aide, because she was a union employee and he could not discharge her.

The deputy treasurer said she called Russell at his part-time job at Perry's drug store Sunday and again asked him if he was terminating her.

"He told me that he would get back to me," explained Mrs. Barber. "He wasn't even man enough to tell me that he had a new deputy and that she was sworn in on the day before."

She said she had heard talk that Russell had told several persons that Mrs. Barber wanted his job and that after what happened in regard to the missing $1,000, that she would never trust him again.

"I've never wanted his job," declared the deputy. "If I had wanted it I would have ran for it."

Mrs. Barber said Russell had lied about taking the oath of office if re-elected, had lied about taking the missing money, and had lied about keeping her on if re-elected.

"He's lied about everything," said Mrs. Barber.

She said she had "worked very hard" for Russell's re-election and in the office.

"I did my best to make him look good in the office," she said.

Mrs. Barber said that to this day, the treasurer had never offered either herself or Mrs. Pless an apology for subjecting them to possible implication in theft of the missing money.

"Mr. Russell told a friend of mine that he couldn't tell us about it (theft of the missing money) because we were too honest," she said.

Efforts to contact Russell Monday proved futile. The receptionist at McCord Corp. in Wyandotte said Russell was not at work Monday. He could not be reached at home as he has a new unlisted telephone number.

After announcing to the township board and audience the week before the election that he had resigned and would not take the oath of office, board trustees voted 5-0 with one abstention to have the treasurer prosecuted.

The board directed that results of the local police investigation be turned over to the county prosecutor's office with the recommendation that Russell be prosecuted. At that time, Police Chief Clinton Brown said exact nature of the charge would be left up to the prosecutor.

Friday, Chief Brown was asked about reports that Robert Sage, deputy chief prosecutor of the out-county division on Henry Ruff Road, had refused to issue a warrant against Russell.

He explained that Sage had sent the paperwork downtown to the office of his boss, Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney William Cahalan.

"It is not unusual for the out-county prosecutor to let the downtown office make the decision on whether a person will be charged and what that charge will be," said the chief.

"I'm waiting to see what happens," he said.

If prosecuted, Russell could face probation or a prison sentence. If neither of those transpire, he could face a possible recall judging from talk at the township hall.

Road Patrol is under ax Commissioners vote to eliminate 249 sheriffs

While Wayne County Commissioners, in a split vote, are recommending total elimination of the Sheriff's 249 man out-county Road Patrol in an effort to balance the 1980-81 budget, Commissioner Edward K. Michalski (D-Detroit) angrily warned today that the action will only lead to more chaos.

"It may save the county about $5 million," he said, "but we'll face a storm of lawsuits and little—if any—police protection in outlying districts."

Even as Michalski spoke, county commissioners were being threatened with legal action by communities contracting for patrol services, Sheriff William Lucas, and the deputy's union.

A final budget session is scheduled for this week before it becomes effective December 1st and, unless commissioners restore the patrol division at that time, 249 road patrol positions and community contracts will be terminated February 1, 1981.

The full board of commissioners were handed the budget Thursday for confirmation.

The hotly-contested proposal to terminate the patrol was approved late last Monday night 10-7 by an unexpected mixture of Detroit and out-county commissioners. Michalski claimed Detroit commissioners, in the past, have consistently supported retention of the road patrol at the expense of being ridiculed by the media for "not biting the bullet."

"This time," he said, "we're going to let the out-county group carry the ball."

Favoring the patrol's elimination were: Delores Bennett, Arthur M. Carter, Jackie L. Currie, Chairman Samuel A. Turner, and Jarrette Simmons, all of Detroit, and Richard E. Manning (Redford-Livonia), James Rashid (Melvindale), Clarence Young (Ecorse), and Martha Scott (Highland Park).

Recommending its continuation were Kay L. Beard (Inkster), Mary E. Dumas (Livonia), Elaine Gregory (Dearborn), Michalski (Detroit), Thomas Presnell (Westland), William Sullivan (Wyandotte), and Edgar L. Harris (Taylor).

The County Board of Auditors recommended the patrol's total elimination in their initial budget proposals given the commissioners in early October. It indicates a net savings of $4,904,475 to the county after revenues amounting to $3,115,535 are deducted from the gross operating expense of $8,263,510.

The Public Safety and Judiciary Committee, chaired by Michalski, in order to conform to contractual agreements and union requirements, extended the life of the patrol to January 31, 1981 to give the communities 60-day advanced notice and deputies their two-week notice.

Affected by the termination will be the townships of Romulus, Plymouth and Brownstown, and the Detroit-Wayne County Metropolitan Airport operated by the county road commission.

Although all three of the communities have threatened legal action, a spokesman for the road commission said, "while we have enjoyed a good relationship with the Sheriff's Department and prefer to continue with their service, we are fully prepared to maintain maximum security at the airport by either beefing up our own security forces or contracting with another police agency such as the state police."

He added that the state police maintain an office at the facility and that they would consider offering jobs to the 44 deputies currently working at the airport and facing possible layoff.

Michalski told members of the Public Safety Committee early Monday that he felt savings could be instituted in other areas including overtime and jail custodial help.

Police Officer, "overtime accounts for over $1 million and the 200 jail custodial employees cost the county an additional $472,000 annually."

Michalski said overtime results from understaffing and could be reduced substantially by increasing jail staffing minimally. "As for the custodians," he added, "I think we could use the prisoners to sweep and mop as other county jails do and save ourselves almost half-a-million dollars." His committee, on a motion by Rashid, agreed to retain 34 deputies targeted for layoff by the Auditors, but balked on increasing the number.

Members of the Safety Committee were notified last week that the jail and its Westland Annex were nearing capacity prisoner population and any further reduction of the jail staff would make it impossible to meet requirements of a court order issued six years ago.

Violation of the order would place commissioners in contempt and a possible trip to jail, themselves. The court order covers jail security, medical services, prisoner property custodians, food and a consulting dietitian.

Governor William Milliken's austerity program might add to the county's problems along county expressways. Russ Gregory, Lieutenant in charge of the Sheriff's Traffic Bureau, said state police have not been actively patrolling the expressways for sometime.

"Their orders," Gregory said, "are to maintain visibility along the routes by using them while travelling from area to area. If our road patrols are terminated, motorists will have no protection along I-94, I-96, I-75 west and south of the Detroit city limits."

Gregory ticked off a number of services the road patrol performs including secondary road, county parks, county hospital, and expressway patrols; marine and detective services, county-wide radio communications networks between local police departments and the all-important LEIN (Law Enforcement Information Network) which provides instantaneous information from Lansing, the Secretary of State's Office and F.B.I. headquarters in Washington.

Although LEIN is not funded by the county, it operates the equipment and ties in the communities of Wayne, Westland, Garden City, Inkster, Sumpter, Belleville and the county's own patrol cars.

Inspector Albert Blascak, in charge of communications at the Road Patrol headquarters on Henry Ruff Road, Westland, said his office handled over 15,000 queries in October, alone, resulting in 1,200 'hits' (arrests). "The Sheriff's Police Academy is considered to be one of the top three in the nation," Gregory added.

award as it applies to the city of Romulus under the terms of the contract. Other items under dispute and review include court times for officers, overtime and premium pay, and administrative charges for police services to the city of Romulus.

"Also, the city of Romulus is paying for current services. An invoice received Nov. 5 from the county of Wayne for police service for the month of November was presented on warrant No. 81-9 to the council of the city of Romulus on Nov. 12. It was approved by the city council and payment was forwarded to Wayne County.

"Finally, in addition, Mr. Bonds, on June 1, 1980, the level of police services provided by Wayne County was reduced at the request of the city of Romulus with an estimated cost savings approximating $32,000 per month. (This reduction in services was an effort by the city to meet budgetary limitations.) However, Mr. Bonds, the city of Romulus has continued to pay the $32,000 monthly, asking that this amount apply to the unresolved amount owed to the county of Wayne by the city of Romulus. This additional amount since June 1, 1980 approximates $192,000.

"Trusting in your integrity as a reputable, respected and highly regarded newscaster, we ask that you review this matter and take whatever steps you deem appropriate."

Sullivan also implored Bonds not to let his (Bonds') "credibility" suffer in the minds of Romulus residents "and become the victim of Black Label and Miss Millie make their home in the Pearch garage, where the man of the house has fixed them deluxe quarters. They have a high, carpeted shelf, complete with bunk beds and a ladder, located in a spot that is sunny in winter for basking. But, to her playmate, it's lonely these days.

With regret, Mrs. Pearch says she can't offer a reward for the return of "Miss Millie." We're on Social Security and a disability pension and they don't go far.

The Pearches hope that anyone who knows anything about the whereabouts of the fluffy black cat will call them or even just drop her off. "No questions will be asked," Mrs. Pearch said.

"Miss Millie" is black, fluffy and has a tinge of gray on her chest and front legs. She also has a slight scar over her right eye.

The phone number is 729-1419 and the address is 6230 Cordell, off Beverly, in Romulus.

If their pet came home — it would really be a "Thanksgiving" for the Pearches.

Councilman injured in auto crash

A Romulus city councilman and an assistant department head are reported to be recovering satisfactorily following an accident and an illness, respectively.

Councilman Richard Yeramian narrowly escaped death about 8 a.m. last Wednesday when his sports car was struck in the rear at high speed by another car and pushed into the rear of a SEMTA bus on Henry Ruff Road, just north of Michigan Avenue.

A city hall spokesman said Yeramian's head went through the windshield, but he did not suffer any cuts. He was taken to a hospital for treatment and released.

Although badly shaken up, Yeramian is reported to be recovering from what could have been a fatal accident.

Robert Plank, assistant DPW director, is home recovering from a blood clot in his lung. Mayor William M. Oakley told City Council last Wednesday night. He is reported to be making a satisfactory recovery after medication dissolved the clot, the mayor said.

Young plans to continue residence in Romulus.

Lindberg said, "We don't know at this point whether the case is drug related or not."

He said Farley had two brothers, the one seen in the bar who also lived with the grandmother, and another whose area of residence is unknown, and a sister who lives in South Carolina.

From the time that Farley left the Canton bar until the time his body was found was approximately 12 niversary at that location by offering customers the fare and prices on its 1964 menu.

Rocco Caiverella, manager, said the promotion will be a testing ground for similar projects at Flag's restaurants in Romulus and Monroe in the future.

Lindberg and Cranford urged anyone who might have seen Farley at the bar in Canton or possibly hitchhiking or getting into a car on Michigan Avenue on the night of Nov. 6 to contact them immediately at 721-2222. They emphasized that their names would be kept confidential.

and television advertising, Flag's in Van Buren is circulating 50,000 copies of its 1964 menu in the local area, Caiverella said.

For 24 hours a day on each of the seven days of the first week in December, customers can order such food and drink items as: top sirloin steak and eggs for $2.15, hot cakes for 45 cents, hot or cold cereals with cream for 35 cents, homemade navy bean soup for 25 cents a bowl, hamburgers at 55 cents, french fried or hash brown potatoes for 25 cents, filet of haddock meal at $1.30, shakes or malts made with ice cream at 35 cents, sundaes from 25 to 35 cents, pie or cake at 30 cents, and a coke at 15 cents.

Caiverella urges local customers and those from out of the area to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to turn the clock back 16 years to when Flag's first opened its doors in Van Buren.

paying for police services, but a question exists on how much is actually owed.

To that, Bonds' editorial reply was: "My source says Romulus ain't paying. Lucas knows it. The patrol is gone."

Sullivan, who is leaving the city's employment to become supervisor of Huron Township, was upset over Bonds editorials. He stressed that he was speaking in an unofficial capacity, but that his comments had been approved by Pat Hogan, community development director for Romulus.

Hogan is representing Mayor William M. Oakley, who was out of the city Monday on a deer hunting trip in northern Michigan.

Calling Bonds' statements on his newscasts "incorrect", Sullivan said: "We were disturbed that a newscaster of Mr. Bonds' stature, whose abilities and reputation for accurate and effective reporting and commentary are held in such high regard, would fall victim to such inaccuracy."

In a hastily prepared statement, Sullivan stated the following:

"Mr. Bonds, the facts are these: 1) The city of Romulus owes the county of Wayne an undetermined amount for police service provided by the county under a contractual agreement. This amount is in dispute. The controversy centers, not in the services provided by the Wayne County Sheriff, but in the charges for these services. The area of contention hinges on a retroactive pay increase awarded the sheriff's deputies, the effective date of that award, and effective date of that Brownstown townships.

Lucas indicated that he did not want to be drawn into a confrontation with Bonds or the news media. He said that he believed the newscaster was not in possession of the facts regarding the police services situation in Romulus.

Bonds, in newscasts at 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. Friday, said that his news source said Romulus owed the county a million dollars and is not paying for the services of sheriff's deputies.

This means, Bonds said, that "everybody else" in the county is paying for police protection provided to Romulus. His editorial comments said, "it isn't fair and it is going to stop."

He admitted that Undersheriff Loren Pittman said Romulus is such an unreliable source of information."

Rush echoed Sullivan feelings, declaring, "Mr. Bonds, vindicate the people of the city of Romulus who have been victimized and subjected to unjustified and undeserved ridicule."

Sullivan asked the newscaster further to restore "confidence and respect" both for himself and his station "in the minds of the people of the city of Romulus."

The ex-finance director said he was acting in response to the many telephone calls to his home over the weekend after Bonds' newscasts by concerned Romulus residents.

Rush called Bonds' charges "unconscionable" and concluded, "I hope you and your station will correctly restate the facts as they are now known to you."

Courts toss out Romulus' suit against airport

The city of Romulus received word last week that a suit by the city, school board, and residents and owners of city property against the Wayne County Road Commission over construction of an additional runway at Detroit Metro Airport has been declared "moot" by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The verdict, decided and filed Nov. 6, 1980, was received No. 10 by Charles Lowther, city attorney, from the Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit, Cincinnati, Ohio.

In addition to the Road Commission, which owns and operates the airport, the suit included as defendants: the County of Wayne, Claude S. Brinegar, secretary of transportation, and Alexander Butterfield, administrator of the Federal Aeronautics Administration.

According to the Court of Appeals, the appeal of a decision of the U.S. District Court for Southeastern Michigan is moot because the runway in question is completed.

Citing several court cases as precedent, the court stated it is applying the "familiar principle that an action is moot where the activities sought to be enjoined have already occurred and can no longer be prevented."

The Court of Appeals ruling said further that the city of Romulus and other plaintiffs only argued on appeal that the District Court had erred in declining to continue an injunction against construction of the runway.

The City of Romulus and plaintiffs had sought to stop construction of an additional $20 million, 10,000 foot third parallel runway at the airport.

The District Court previously has issued a preliminary injunction, but dissolved it after the federal government submitted revised information stating why the runway should be built.

However, in its decision, the Court of Appeals stated that the plaintiffs could sue to restrict use of the runway, could seek to recover damages, and could ask that the runway be abandoned.

The court pointed out further that plaintiffs did not push on any of these counts in earlier court action and that the Court of Appeals had ruled only on the appeal of the District Court's removal of the injunction.

This latest ruling by the Court of Appeals is one of several in which the city has been at odds with the airport.

Recently, Romulus Supt. of Schools William Bedell has announced his desire to have the airport pay the city and school district for the nuisance it causes, as well as in increased taxes.

However, he pointed out what he believed to be the futility of fighting the powerful Road Commission on such matters in court.

WCCC report outlines college's rapid growth

On the heels of victory for James R. McCartney, recently re-elected to the position of Trustee for Wayne County Community College (WCCC), the institution released its annual report.

The report focused on the college's rapid and intensive growth and highlighted its extensive curricula offering.

Focusing on growth, the report announced statistics released by the Michigan Bureau of Budget which confirms that enrollment reached an estimated 14,761 full-time equated students in 1979-80, making WCCC the largest two year institution of higher education in the State.

In addition, the report highlighted the institution's five regional centers opened or under construction since inception.

"As our rapidly increasing enrollment demonstrates the need for the comprehensive services of the College," notes Interim President William G. Herbert, "our presence is felt throughout the service districts in Wayne County."

McCartney emphasized in the report that "the College's growth is designed to reflect specific needs throughout each of the five regions."

The report continues to boast the growth and effectiveness of the college's Students Services Division. The Division has undertaken such projects as The Student Information System, Career Education Task Force, its Institute for Human Resources, Special Needs Program, Articulation Task Force and Child Care.

McCartney emphasized what he feels is the real "meat" of the report, being, the announcement of major steps taken toward improving the quality of instruction at the College. "The institution feels that through these steps WCCC is a comprehensive community college with comprehensive programs in the occupational, general studies and community service areas." He cautioned, however, "that in light of Governor Milliken's recent budget pronouncements, program evaluation and budget analysis will be priority concerns of the Board."

YFU seeks homes for exchange students

YFU, a non-profit student exchange program, seeks responsible, caring host families who are willing to open their hearts and homes to South American exchange students, from January to July, 1981.

Students (aged 14-18) will be carefully matched with local families and will attend high school during the exchange experience.

Host families provide room and board for the student, welcoming him or her as a family member, not as a guest.

Youth for Understanding program fees and personal expenses are provided by the student's natural family. YFU international students are highly motivated, have studied the English language and are eager to learn about the American way of life by firsthand participation.

Host families come in all shapes and sizes, and all types of families are welcome to apply for this unique venture into cross-cultural sharing.

Since its inception nearly 30 years ago, YFU has arranged for the exchange of more than 70,000 students in 24 countries.

With a philosophy based on increasing global understanding through the host family experience, YFU is supported by hundreds of dedicated volunteers and professional staff members throughout the world.

For more information on becoming a Host Family or other YFU opportunities, contact your regional office: Diana Follebout/Regional Director, 6264 Dixie Highway, Bridgeport, MI, 48722, or call collect: 517/777-4420.

Letters to the Editor

EDITOR — We wish to thank your reporter, Jim Bradley, for the excellent editorial dated Oct. 23, in reference to "Deputy Treasurer Deserves Support for Her Dedication" which appeared in The Associated Newspapers.

Your reporter did his homework well. He took the time to investigate the true facts and the story and you were brave enough to publish them.

Yes, you also found that Maria Falkiewicz is no one's pawn.

Too bad certain people have not learned the meaning of politics. It means "science of government" and is definitely NOT the science of mud-slinging. What a waste!

We will be among those who will see her sworn in as Treasurer of Canton Township and are very proud of her and to serve on her committee for reelection. We know Maria Falkiewicz cares about her community, and she will do her utmost to serve the people of this community for the next four years.

If we only had more people like her and people like Jim Bradley who are not afraid to print the truth, there would be a better world. Please keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
TINA STERLINI,
Canton Twp.

EDITOR — Although a lot has been written and said about this years Wayne High football team, I had to take this time to congratulate "our" team and coaching staff on a great and exciting season!

The Fordson defeat was a hard one to take. Through the cold and rain in Wyandotte our "Zebras" fought to a victory. But the biggest thrill of all was the final outcome of the Wayne High, John Glenn contest.

The weather was perfect for the big night and fans, parents, and friends alike were anxiously awaiting the starting kick off. Half time festivities with both the Rocket and Zebra bands was superb.

But when the final minutes ticked off on the big clock, our hearts were beating with excitement and our faces beaming with joy!

To all the fine young men on both teams, "congratulations" on another fine football season, and to the young men on the 1980 Wayne Memorial team, "thank you" for three exciting years of High School football. To our Son, and all Seniors of 1980, God Bless you all in what ever roads you may choose and "thank" each and everyone for a lot of happy and beautiful memories.

Mr. & Mrs. Richard Covault

EDITOR — We, the girls from Girlstown, are writing in response to an article in the November 12, 1980 edition of your newspaper. The article was entitled "Girlstown, A Home That Shelters Emotionally Disturbed Girls."

We agree that most residents of Belleville are unaware that there is a home called Girlstown in their community. However, we feel this article gives the public a terribly distorted image of what Girlstown is really about.

To begin with, the term "emotionally impaired" was used rather coldly.

Society has a vague idea of what "emotionally impaired" means.

For instance, Harold Love once wrote in his book, The Emotionally Disturbed Child, "Emotionally impaired children are, inattentive, indifferent, or apparently lazy in school."

We would like to point out that 4 of our 10 girls made the honor roll at Belleville High School. Also, the average grade of all 10 girls was "B plus" for the first card marking of the current school year. Can our society on a whole match or hope to match these accomplishments?

In addition, two other facts were erroneously stated. We girls come from all over the state, not just Wayne and Washtenaw Counties as stated in the article. More importantly, we are not sent to Girlstown by the Michigan Court System.

We are referred here by some Courts and Michigan Department of Social Services and are interviewed before being accepted. We must then want to come here or we are not accepted.

We would like to say in closing that we are here for various reasons, many of which are not our fault. However, we do like our house and feel that this article does not accent the good points of Girlstown or of the girls who live here.

"Girls" at Girlstown

EDITOR — This letter is an effort to inform the people that they are in danger of losing one of Michigan's outstanding police agencies.

The people have demanded the best law enforcement agency in the country and the individual troopers have made the state police the best in the nation. Yet, on Sept. 28, seventy-nine Michigan State Police Troopers were laid off. It's the first time in the history of the state police an entire school has been lost.

As state police troopers facing a lay off we obviously have personal reasons for opposing lay offs, but as citizens of this state its time to recognize that there is alot more at stake than seventy-nine people losing their jobs.

As troopers we are aware of the need for additional police presence rather than cut backs to face the pressures facing every police officer due to this increase. We can't help but feel that the primary losers involved in our lay offs, and all law enforcement reduction, are the people of the state.

That one less Trooper on the road is the one less Trooper that should have been there when you and your family needed him.

Pets and animals

By Stanley E. Bartkiewicz, D.V.M.
BARTZ ANIMAL HOSPITAL

Bones are living, changing organs. When they are broken, it is like another organ getting cut, the blood supply is disturbed and must regrow over the fracture site. The bone reabsorbs slightly on either side of the fracture site due to the loss of the micro blood supply. For the vessels to regrow, the pieces of the bone must not move and must be held close together.

If there is movement at the fracture site, the body will try to stabilize the fracture by laying down a callus of bone. The callus is fragile and will fracture easily. The more movement, the more callus that is laid down.

There are many ways to stabilize a fracture:

1) A splint may be used if it can keep the joints above and below the fracture from moving. The splint must be kept dry and checked at regular intervals to watch for swelling and sores;

2) A metal pin can be placed through the marrow of the bone going from one end and is pushed firmly into the other end of the disjoined bone. A splint may then be placed on the leg to prevent rotation of the bone around the pin, and;

3) A rectangular piece of metal with a row of holes in it can be attached to the bone with screws. The center of this plate is positioned over the fracture site. Screws are then placed through the holes in the plate and into the bone above and below the fracture site.

Many more types of stabilization can be used. Each fracture is different and requires special methods of stabilization. X-rays need to be taken to determine how severe the fracture is and how it might be corrected.

HOW TO TALK TO YOUR CHILD ABOUT DEATH

Talk openly, simply and directly. Explain what death is in terms the child can understand. Do not overdo the explanation. Encourage the child to question and probe. Be direct.

Good conversation-starters are all around us in nature; the changing of the seasons, floods, fires, frogs, birds, butterflies. Life, birth and death are all a part of nature and should be discussed comfortably, in small doses, with children.

Explain that death is really "a part of life." Discuss death with a child whenever his world brushes against it - when a pet cat or dog dies... when a flower begins to lose its petals... and certainly when a relative, friend or a public figure dies who is known to the child.

Explain what a child is to expect when a death occurs in the family. When children know what to expect and what to do, they are not surprised or apprehensive.

If you have special questions on this subject, please feel free to call us.

Ask Carol Premo

'On moral majority'

Dear Carol,

In your opinion, what is the long-term psychological effect of the "Moral Majority" on our democratic institutions?

It seems to me that history has clearly demonstrated that there are always those persons who wish to prey upon the fears and anxieties of human beings and to persecute those who do not conform to "their" pronouncements and edicts, of course, always Biblically supported.

It seems to me that Christ was a liberal in that he forgave transgressors, supported the weak and asked us to help our neighbors.

In his stead, can you see any parallels between the current "Moral Majority," Hitlerism, the 500 year Inquisition, the Salem Witch Hunts and other transgressions all done in His name?

Do not these self-appointed Messiahs, by witch-hunting members of Congress, create psychological harm while lining their own pockets with good hard money? I would appreciate an appraisal from just that view.

Yours sincerely,
Citizen

P.S. Do not use my name for fear of witch hunt.

Dear Citizen,

There are many lessons to be learned from history but unfortunately few are.

Crisis is a time of fear and confusion.

People do not like the position in which they find themselves and they look to others to place blame for their woes.

You ask me for an appraisal of your views. I cannot give definitive answers but can exercise my freedom of speech.

God gave people a free will so that they could come to Him. Being omnipotent he had the power to have people do anything he wanted.

Apparently will and choice are important. Religion and force seem contradictory and definitely something to fear. Hitler, Salem witch trials, inquisitions, McCarthyism, although having different victims are all the same.

The idea of "I know what God wants and if you don't agree, I'll kill you," was clear and present.

Today we have not had the threat of death but we do have many saying that they know all of God's will and that there can be no deviation from what they know.

It is far too soon to determine what direction our country will take but not too soon to be aware. Our constitution guarantees separation of Church and State and we may soon find out exactly what that means.

It is important to remember the foundation on which this country was established.

Dear Carol,

How come when you walk into a room on a visit people always grab you and hug you and give you kisses? I am a 12-year-old boy and I do not like this at all. What can I do? Hurry, please.

Help

Dear Help,

Maybe they hug you because they like you. If it really bugs you that much, however, how about extending your hand in a gesture of friendship. A simple handshake is generally quite acceptable.

3 strikes—why isn't Russell out?

Recent actions of Clarence Russell, who admitted he took $1,000 in Sumpter Township funds during his last term as treasurer, leave much to be desired as regards the conduct of an elected official.

After admitting his theft of the missing funds, Russell appeared at the meeting of the township board with his wife and read a prepared statement in which he offered his resignation. He also said publicly that if re-elected he would not take the oath of office, which in effect, means he would not serve a second term as treasurer.

When most of Sumpter's newly-elected officials were sworn in Nov. 13 at the township hall, Russell was not there and most people believed that he was keeping true to his word.

But, Russell requested and received a private swearing in ceremony from Clerk Clarence Hoffman two days later on Saturday in direct contradiction to what he told the public two weeks earlier.

When the treasurer took township money to "cover personal bills", he was wrong. He admitted it and could face prosecution in the near future.

However, when Russell took the oath of office for a second term, he lied to the citizens of Sumpter Township publicly for the second time.

Even the hardest hearted of us can forgive the commission of a wrong, especially when the doer admits it. In Russell's case, he compounded his first lie, saying he did not know where the missing $1,000 was, by pulling a stunt that was a slap in the face to his followers and township residents.

But, like a rollercoaster out of control, the treasurer committed still another wrong—deceiving a trusted employee who had gone above and beyond the call of duty in his behalf.

When he was sworn in privately, he also had a new deputy treasurer take the oath, Diane M. Schroeder, who ran unsuccessfully for a trustee nomination in the August primary election.

According to Leona Barber, Russell's deputy during his last term, the treasurer told her she would continue in her present capacity and would have a job as long as he was in office.

This same deputy, along with another employee in the treasurer's office, Cheryl Pless, volunteered to help Russell pay back the missing $1,000 at a time when its whereabouts was unknown.

During the police investigation into the case of the missing money, Mrs. Barber voluntarily took a lie detector test which she passed. However, just the knowledge that one has been asked to take the test opens them up to possible implication.

Mrs. Pless also was scheduled to take a lie detector test, but Russell confessed before she, too, was placed in that humiliating position.

For her devotion to her boss and her job as deputy treasurer, Mrs. Barber was replaced. Russell rationalized his action by telling her that he was not firing her, but instead was not rehiring her!

Because she apparently was a union employee, Mrs. Pless was not terminated and was more fortunate.

Russell's admission that he took the money was the first strike against him. His taking of the oath for a second term was the second strike against him. His discharge of Mrs. Barber was the third strike against him.

In our book, when you have three strikes against you, you're out! That, Mr. Russell, is where we believe you should be.

Seeing things

By MONA GRIGG

There are few people today who are actually working at jobs they told their mommies and daddies they wanted to do when they grew up.

How did those select few manage it? By sidestepping personnel offices, that's how.

Personnel offices, for the uninitiated, are places where former alligator wrestlers go to wait for their big chance at wrestling grizzlies. In the meantime, they are perfect personnel candidates.

A simple question like, "Are you taking applications?" is enough to send them into a rage. They look you right in the belt buckle (they never look you in the eye, always in the belt buckle. Unless they are standing, too. Then they look you in the right earlobe) and say, "Can I help you?" That is to put you off guard. They heard the original, odious question, they just want you to have to ask it again.

"I said, 'Are you taking applications?'"

"Applications for what?"

"For jobs."

"What kind of jobs?"

"What kind do you have?"

"What kind are you looking for?"

"If I tell you, do you promise to have one?"

I have never hit it off well with those people. For one thing, when they see by my belt buckle that I am a woman, they inevitably ask the inevitable: "How many words a minute can you type?"

When I say I don't want to type, they are aghast. They have seen by my resume that I have been a secretary many times over. Of course I want to type. They make it clear, though, that I will have to work my way up to becoming a secretary with their firm. All of the girls start out in the typing pool.

I tell them I am neither a girl nor a typist. That if they offered me a job as secretary to the Angel Gabriel, I would turn it down.

I have BEEN a secretary, I say. Now I want to be assistant to the vice president in charge of the assistant to the president. It's not asking too much, I insist—I didn't ask to be assistant to the president, did I?

"Yeah, but can you type?" the girl asks.

It is irrelevant, I say, since I will not be typing. I will be meeting VIPs at the airport. I will be knee-deep in swatches, color coordinating my boss's office. Things like that.

Hah! she says. (Oh, not in so many words. She didn't exactly say, Hah!, but I know a Hah! when I hear one.)

"So what else can you do besides type?" she finally asks.

I pounce on the question. I'm glad she asks, I say, because if she can imagine, in just 15 short years I have pulled myself up from abject ignorance to the point where I can balance my checkbook to within a few dollars, I can have 12 for dinner without resorting to Colonel Sanders, and Oh, yes, I know what a dipstick is...though I'm not real sure just WHERE it is. Yet.

She is aghast again. Now it is my turn to say, Hah! Before she can speak, I give her the clincher: I have almost singlehandedly run the PTA Fair for the past three years.

Her face is turning red and she looks silly with her mouth open like that. I reach over and close it for her, hitching up my belt buckle at the same time. Now, I say (knowing I have the upper hand), let's talk about that job.

"Sure," she says through clenched teeth. "But first there's a little test you have to take."

"What kind of test?"

"Oh, just a little test to...determine your skills. The room on your left." She is grinning and looking me straight in the eye. I don't like it.

The room on my left is filled to near overflow with people typing at breakneck speed on old manual typewriters. As I turn to leave, the auto-lock door clangs itself shut.

"Be seated and be quiet!" the matron shouts. "You will briefly peruse the card on your right. You will type steadily for two minutes. You will stop when I give the signal. Ready...begin!"

I sit and I start and for reasons unknown or obscured by time I find myself caught up in the whole thing and begin typing as though my very life depends on it. Two minutes later, when the matron shouts, "Stop!", rivulets of perspiration are running down my neck. I have to win, I have to!

Well, I did win. And I started out in the typing pool. It wasn't a bad job, really. It was a short job, though, because it all came to a screeching, ignominious halt when, among other things, I transcribed a letter verbatim and sent it on its way.

I still don't see how it was my fault, just because the guy never said what he meant...or meant what he said. If someone said, in almost perfectly good English, "Hoping to see you in the not too near future," isn't that what you would type?

Those 10 commandments

By JIM BRADLEY

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled this week that Kentucky cannot post copies of the Ten Commandments in its public school classrooms.

In a narrow 5-4 vote, the nation's highest court said the posting of the commandments in public schools violates the Constitution's freedom-of-religion guarantees.

The court's decision also reversed a ruling by the Kentucky Supreme Court that the state's action was constitutional.

In rendering its decision, the Supreme Court said, "The pre-eminent purpose for posting the Ten Commandments on schoolroom walls is plainly religious in nature. The Ten Commandments is undeniably a sacred text in the Jewish and Christian faiths and no legislative recitation of a supposed secular purpose can blind us to that fact."

The basically liberal Supreme Court, it seems clear to us, has violated our guarantee to freedom of religion by their action. Voting for the majority opinion were Justices William J. Brennan, Jr., Thurgood Marshall, John Paul Stevens, Byron R. White and Lewis F. Powell Jr.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Harry A. Blackmun dissented, voting to review the case more fully before deciding it, and William H. Rehnquist and Potter Stewart agreed with the Kentucky Supreme Court.

At issue was a state law requiring the Ten Commandments to be posted in all schoolrooms. Ruling on the 1978 lawsuit against the state's superintendent of schools, a state trial judge in Frankfort, Squire Williams, upheld the law.

Isn't it strange that our liberal-minded officials—the school superintendent on the state level and the five Supreme Court Justices—refuse the majority of local people what they want?

Our money is inscribed with the words: "In God We Trust." The same words adorn the front of our courthouses and other government buildings. And when we pledge allegiance to the U.S. Flag, we include the words... "One nation, under God."

We feel the Supreme Court's decision is incorrect and unfair to those who do want the Ten Commandments posted on the walls of school rooms. We feel it not only violates our freedom of religion but is another case of intrusion into local affairs.

When the U.S. Supreme Court ruled quite a few years ago that prayers could not be said in school, they stated that only prescribed prayers by teachers and other administrators were banned—not voluntary prayers. Later, however, the meaning was changed to include the banning of all prayer in public schools—including voluntary prayers.

Further contradictory evidence to the inconsistencies of the courts is the recent ruling that schools can sing religious songs in their Thanksgiving and Christmas programs.

We totally disagree with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling and believe they should change it. For one thing, we do not believe a list of the Ten Commandments hanging on a schoolroom wall is infringing on anyone's rights.

On the other hand, the world's legal systems and moral values are based on the Decalogue, which is a vital foundation for individuals and nations to build upon.

In light of the world's, and our nation's, fast-declining morality, we feel strongly that we all would do well to review and live by the unsurpassed standard given to us in the Ten Commandments.

Dialogue with my lawyer

By TOM MOORADIAN
Managing Editor

The game between reporter and lawyer can be fun. And very costly.

Lawyers accuse the Fourth Estate of manipulating the facts to create sensationalism; we reply that all lawyers have to be actors in order to win cases. They never present the facts.

And when I presented a set of what I felt were facts to him, my lawyer, I should have known that the response would not be—could not be—anticipated.

"Fact," I began, "Clarence Russell, a treasurer in Sumpter, admitted he took $1,000 in township funds to pay off a debt or debts. Fact," I continued, "he resigned from the township."

"The rest," I continued, "is just pure speculation. Hearsay. Russell said that if elected, he would not take the oath of office. But he won. And he is back in office where he started from."

"And," asked my lawyer, "what do you think he should have done?"

"I feel the man has betrayed the public trust," I replied. "Even though he may go unpunished, I think he has no right to the office he violated. In fact, I feel it's almost sacrilegious that he took the oath of office again."

My lawyer laughed. Right in my face.

"And what more do you want from that official?" my lawyer argued. "O.K., the guy's a wrongdoer. He did something wrong and, after he did it he admitted it publicly. He resigned his position. He made full restitution. Now the question is raised, does such a person deserve the public's trust?"

"Sir," I intercede, "I'm not a jury and this is not a courtroom."

"Sir," the lawyer replied, "we are always in a courtroom and we are always jurors."

"Quit being philosophical."

"Then, let me present my final arguments and conclude this thing that obviously is annoying you."

I remained contemptuously patient. Then he continued:

"Now, the question is, does such a person deserve the public trust..."

"You said that before..."

"O.K. Let me answer. Yes, he does. The accused did everything reasonably expected of him after the wrongdoing. Ask yourself how many feeders off the public trough commit thievery, and do none of the things this man did. Instead of admitting their wrongdoing, they try to hide it; instead of resigning, they resist and we have to push—at great expense, mind you—to get them out. And, instead of making full restitution, they hire a battery of lawyers—like me—and (God bless them)—to fight even that. And do you know what?"

"What?"

"Most people, like yourself, feel that once a person violates public trust, his life should remain tainted until the grave and ever after."

Cape Cod honeymoon follows Leirstein-Gamble ceremony

Candlelight set the mood September 27 for the early autumn ceremony which joined Terri Lynne Gamble and Gary D. Leirstein in holy matrimony. Double ring vows were exchanged before The Rev. Robert G. McCreight at six in the evening at Martha-Mary Chapel of the Belleville Presbyterian Church.

Some 150 relatives and friends were assembled for the wedding including the young couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Gamble of 41521 Expressway, Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Leirstein of 32548 Merritt, Westland.

Music for the occasion included "The Wedding Song" by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dewitt and "One Hand, One Heart" by Betty Teasdale.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Terri appeared in an Alfred Angelo design of ivory chiffon and lace, the little fitted bodice featuring an oval neckline and clear, full sleeves frosted with lace medallions.

A veil of silk illusion which drifted to chapel length from a lace Juliet cap and a bouquet of white silk roses, stephanotis and ivy completed her bridal finery.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Kenlyn Austin, came from Leamington, Ont., Canada, to serve as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Dana Dales of Belleville, also a cousin of the bride; Mrs. Patrick Naef of Lapeer; Susan and Ann Askew of Belleville, and Mrs. Kenneth Leftwich of Westland.

Wearing identical ensembles, the group was gowning in toe-touching rose-colored gowns with blouson bodices. They carried baskets of silk and dried flowers and tucked matching blooms in their hair.

Heather Dickerson, the 6-year-old daughter of the George Dickersons, was flower girl in a floral printed frock similar to the senior attendants'. She, too, held a basket filled with mixed flowers and wore a small floral arrangement in her hair.

The role of ringbearer was filled by Mathew Leirstein, the 6-year-old son of the Rick Leirsteins.

Best man was Mark Higdon of Fowlerville. The corps of ushers included Ken Leftwich of Westland; Kevin Leirstein, Brian Leirstein, and Alan Leirstein, all brothers of the bridegroom from Westland; Rick Leirstein, another brother from Livonia; Joe Watson of Detroit and Keith Armstrong of Evless, Texas.

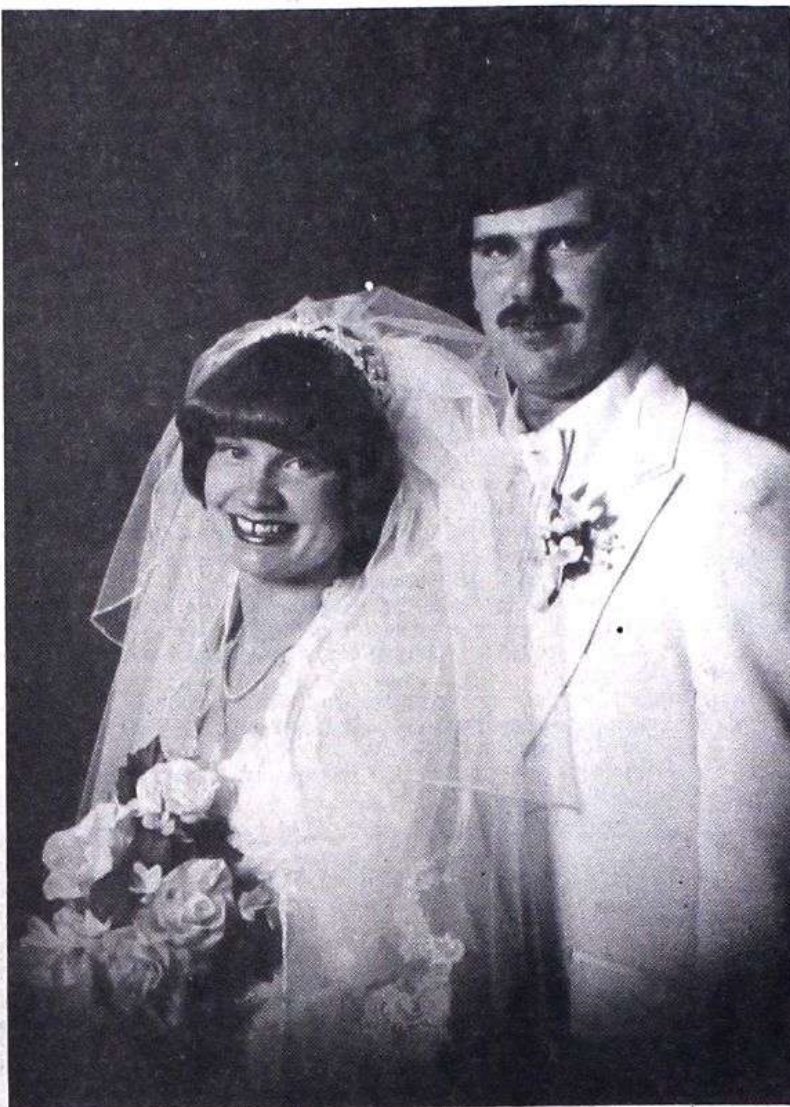

At the Knights of Columbus Hall in Wayne where the reception was held, the bride's mother greeted some 300 guests in a gown of dusty pink to which she pinned her corsage of matching silk orchids. Silk orchids were also presented to the bridegroom's mother who donned a formal burgundy gown for the occasion.

Following a 2-week honeymoon at Cape Cod and other parts of New England, the newlyweds took up residence in Ypsilanti.

A 1976 graduate of Belleville High School, the new Mrs. Leirstein earned her bachelor of science degree in music at Eastern Michigan University. She is employed at Washtenaw Country Club in Ypsilanti.

Her husband, an alumnus of Livonia Churchill's class of 1971, works as a carpenter for Bauer-Frampton Company of Detroit.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents on September 25 at their home in Westland.

potpourri

BY LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Hope you noticed that this column was missing last week and, more importantly, hope it was missed. But every so often, "potpourri" likes to play hooky and just "get away". Despite the fact it was a November escape, we managed to be blessed with temperatures in the low 70's for our autumnal golf sojourn in Tennessee. A brilliant sun in cloudless skies even necessitated the use of suntan lotion.

Sharing the super slab journey with another pair of tees-fairways-and-greens buffs, the 9½ hour trip could well have lacked for conversation at times. Not so when you're armed with the current issues of Southern Living -- a fat one featuring its holiday foods section -- plus Women's Day and Family Circle and most importantly, a new cookbook!

Having just been gifted with "Soupcon", a 367-pager put out by the Junior League of Chicago, we gals found ourselves talking food, recipes and menus until all four of us were growlingly visualizing plump brown turkeys, crown pork roasts, ribs of juicy beef, mounds of mashed potatoes, smorgasboards of green and yellow vegetables and scads of pies, cakes, cookies and mile-high desserts.

Not only did we get menus planned for important upcoming dates but came across new and interesting recipes of all sorts. And, oh how I hate to have to stick to all the traditional, proven, well-loved dishes for Thanksgiving what with the many, many fascinating new ones we discovered.

"Soupcon" is imaginatively put together in four sections -- green, yellow, orange and white -- for the four seasons of the year; each portion featuring foods that are abundant during those particular months.

There are also planned menus ("Spring" highlights a Ladies Tee-Off Luncheon, Derby Day Buffet, Formal Dinner, Bridal Luncheon, Spring Brunch for a Crowd and Easter Dinner, for example) as well the proper wines to serve with entrees and even recipes from famous restaurants in the Windy City.

And, yes, all that food-talk, plus the cooking portions of those previously mentioned magazines, complete with color photographs, DID work up an appetite.

But we were prepared! With a cooler full of chilled goodies, thermos of hot coffee, baskets of apples, grapes and bananas and lots and lots of snackin' stuff, we could have gone cross-country (the men told us) and never have had to stop to eat. 'Twas fun!

"Portraits", Cynthia Freeman's "biggie" (it's 677 pages deep), is another piece of work in keeping with the current trend toward family sagas. "Thornbirds", "Evergreen", "Random Winds" and, of course, "Roots" being just a few of which appeared on the best seller lists in months past and which recounted fictionalized family histories.

The story of four generations of a Jewish family in America, "Portraits" begins with the arrival of Esther Sandsonitsky who leaves Poland at the turn of the century for the mythical "golden land".

A young widow, she attempts to make a new life for herself and two of her three children. The eldest, Jacob, a mere child at the time, is left behind out of necessity but eventually finds his own way across the ocean. He arrives with hatred for his mother and a vow to never seek her out or ask her help, a promise which is broken almost at once when he is robbed of his meager possessions and important emigrant papers and tossed in jail as a non-registered undesirable.

It is the tale, also, of Jacob's wife, Sara, who fights to retain her emotional hold on the lives of their three daughters. Rachel, the beauty, breaks her father's heart and mother's grip by a marriage outside her faith to an older, extremely wealthy man. Doris is the Cinderella of the "Sanders" family who achieves fame and a way of life beyond her wildest dreams despite the complete and unwarranted rejection of her mother, father and sisters. Lillian, the "baby", is the daughter who scandalizes her parents with her divorce but finds she cannot break her mother's hold on her.

This story of the American dream takes the reader from Poland to New York to Cleveland to San Francisco and Los Angeles and is a vivid portrayal of men and women struggling against each other to find their niche in life.

Although there are few people you could really like or admire, it is one of those books with skillfully drawn characters you find yourself loving or detesting. "Portraits" is one of those books you hate to see and yours truly thinks it's worth your time.

I always felt it a great loss to this community when the Belvil Theater closed its doors a couple decades back. The fact that our own kids didn't get the chance to meet their pals (buddies, gang?) and giggle or weep over bags of popcorn as we had in our growing-up days always seemed a great void.

That hometown get-together-in-the-evening opportunity just never jelled for them when the "Belvil" folded.

There were hopes for awhile, though, you'll recall, when the developers of Lakewood Shopping Center promised this area a local movie house but, like so many big-time operations, the cinema never came to fruition.

But -- there IS a chance (if the community supports it) of having a reasonable facsimile and a decent place for all to meet without driving miles and without blowing a mint for a movie.

On Nov. 21 the Student Activity Council of Belleville High School will be presenting the second in a planned series of top-flight films. And one of Hollywood's biggest drawing cards, Clint Eastwood, will be on hand via the celluloid in "Every Which Way But Loose".

Tickets are priced at $1.50 with a special price of 50 cents for senior citizens. We all know what a super, comfortable auditorium we have and with films as popular as the aforementioned; the previously shown movie, "Coalminer's Daughter" and the upcoming comedy, "Meatballs", on Dec. 5, there should be no reason the Council's project should fail.

Tell your friends about the movies and see that an idea as good as this one doesn't go down the drain.

Couldn't quite believe it -- thought the after-work-gremlins had played havoc with my eyes -- but last Thursday, returning home via Saline-Ann Arbor Road, I spotted my first Christmas tree of the season (the Thanksgiving tree might be more appropriate.)

But there it was, a huge pine in all its outdoor-lighted glory. And you know what tickled me? -- the jack-o-lanterns which still decorated the door stoop!

Ever stop to wonder about the origin of the plushy word "posh"? Although most of us know its meaning -- extremely elegant, comfortable, luxurious -- few of us know of its derivation.

Back in the era when Great Britain was truly a seat of Empire, her colonial emissaries were making regular trips from London by steamer to India, Australia and other far-flung territories.

Most of these trips were made by way of P&O (Peninsular and Oriental) Steamships. The pursers appended the initials P.O.S.H. to the names of people on the passenger list who were to have the best accommodations available.

The initials -- meaning Port Out, Starboard Home -- soon became the word "posh" which is today a synonym for elegance.

Why one side out and the other home, you ask? It was to provide shelter from the sun. Since the Tropic of Cancer runs through India, it is obvious that any time during the year the sun would always be in the south during the warmer hours of the day. So, Port Out would shelter posh passengers from the direct glare of the sun, just as would Starboard Home.

THE BOTTOM LINE: Times change: cars are now regarded as necessities and children as luxuries.

John Cavill, Diane Andrews married at St. Anthony's Church

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. CAVILL

Two members of Belleville High School's class of 1976, Diane Joy Andrews and John Louis Cavill, were joined in marriage October 17 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The six o'clock rite, conducted by The Rev. Raymond Bucon, united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Andrews of 4690 McBride, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cavill of 12301 Lake Pointe Pass, Belleville.

Pink carnations and white daisies adorned the altar as the young couple exchanged wedding bands and nuptial vows before some 200 assembled guests.

Approaching the sanctuary with her father, Diane was gowned in a toe-touching creation of Victorian lace styled with an illusion neckline, sheer bishop sleeves and a chapel train.

A soft-brimmed lace hat studded with seed pearls secured the bride's short veil and a colonial bouquet of white carnations, daisies and baby's breath completed her ensemble.

Burgundy frocks with gathered bodices and cap sleeves were worn by the quartet of bridal attendants: Sheila L. Christensen of Tecumseh, who was her sister's honor attendant; Susan Cavill and Kathy Stewart of Belleville, the bridegroom's sisters, and Jo Ann Andrews, the bride's sister-in-law.

The bridegroom asked his best friend, William Pelarske of Wayne, to be best man. Ushers were Dave James and brothers of the bridal pair, William Cavill and Michael Andrews, all from Belleville.

The UAW Local 849 of Ypsilanti was reserved for the reception which followed. Friends and relatives were greeted by Mrs. Andrews in a dusty rose gown and Mrs. Cavill in a beige ensemble. Both mothers were presented with rose corsages.

The new Mrs. Cavill is a former employee of Trans Continental Airlines, Inc. of Ypsilanti. Her husband is with L&W Engineering of Belleville. They are now making their home in Belleville.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at the rehearsal dinner at their home on Lake Pointe Pass.

Short subjects -- holiday style

DRESS UP HOLIDAY SUNDAYES

Are you anticipating those spur-of-the-moment company occasions that develop as the holidays move along? If not, pause now and jot down the most inventory of favorites that store nicely in the freezer: ice cream and containers of frozen whipped topping. You can work all sorts of delicious miracles with this team.

Create Holiday Sundaes by first taking out your most attractive glass dessert dishes. Mound scoops of ice cream in each dish and bring out a few special toppings, each made with thawed frozen whipped topping.

To one cup thawed frozen whipped topping fold in one to two tablespoons chopped mixed candied fruits and 1/4 teaspoon rum extract. For another topping, fold a tablespoon of chopped salted peanuts and a tablespoon of semi-sweet chocolate flavored baking chips into one cup of thawed frozen whipped topping.

In keeping with the colors of the season, try folding 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract and a few drops of green food coloring into a cup of thawed frozen whipped topping.

Invite guests to serve themselves at what really is a make-your-own sundae party.

BAKE A TREE-TRIMMING CAKE

Even if you're in a hurry this holiday season there should be time to bake a cake that adds to the spirit of a family tree-trimming party.

Start with packaged cake mix. Be sure to have an 8-ounce container of frozen whipped topping on hand because it's the major ingredient for this Mint Frosting. Blend 1/2 teaspoon peppermint extract and a few drops of green food coloring into the thawed whipped topping. This will make four cups or enough to fill and frost two 8- or 9-inch cake layers; or, to frost top and sides of a 9-inch square cake or 13x9-inch cake.

Garnish frosted cake with grated chocolate or chocolate curls, if desired.

In accepting such franchise grant, the Company acknowledges that its rights hereunder are subject to the constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan and the police power of the Township of Sumpter to adopt and enforce Ordinances necessary to the safety and welfare of the public; and the Rules and Regulations of the FCC; and, such Company acknowledges and agrees to comply with all applicable Ordinances currently in effect and or subsequently enacted by the Township pursuant to such powers. Further, this grant of franchise to the Company is expressly contingent upon the faithful performance of all of the conditions of this Ordinance.

The grant of authority to Company was preceded by a careful consideration of the legal, technical, financial and character qualifications of the Company and its principals, in a full, open and public proceeding.

SECTION 4. DURATION, RENEWAL, PERFORMANCE, EVALUATION, TRANSFER AND EXPIRATION OF FRANCHISE

Section 4.1 Duration of Franchise

Upon receipt of such notice, the Township Board shall establish a date, time and place for a proposed hearing to take place within sixty (60) days of the receipt of such notice, at which the Company shall appear and be heard, to determine whether the Company has satisfactorily performed its obligations pursuant to this Ordinance. For purposes of this Section, "Satisfactory Performance" shall be determined by the technical development and performance of the cable television system, programming, services offered, cost of services, availability of programming equipment and personnel to aid access channel users, and examination of the Company's cable television system with reference to industry performance on a national basis.

C. Within ten (10) months after the public hearing, the Township Board shall prepare a written report encompassing findings of fact and conclusions relative to the Company's performance, and determine whether (1) the Company's franchise should be renewed and for what term, and (2) what, if any, amendments to the Ordinance are necessary for such continuation.

D. In the event that Company is determined by the Township Board to have performed unsatisfactorily, new applicants shall be sought and evaluated by the Township Board in accordance with franchising procedures to be established.

Section 4.3 Performance Evaluation

The field of cable communications is a relatively new and rapidly changing field which shall no doubt see many regulatory, technical, financial, marketing and legal changes during the term of the franchise period. No transfer or assignment of effective ownership or control of the cable television system may take place, whether by forced or voluntary sale, lease, mortgage, assignment, encumbrance or any other form of disposition, without prior notice to and approval by the Township Board, which shall not be unreasonably refused. The notice shall include full identifying particulars of the proposed transaction, and the Township Board shall act by resolution.

B. For purposes of this Section, a "transfer of effective ownership or control" shall be taken to mean and include the acquisition, within any consecutive period of thirty-six (36) months, of more than a twenty (20 percent) percent interest in the Company's voting capital stock, franchise, plant, equipment or other property used in the conduct of the business; or more than a twenty (20 percent) percent representation on the Company's Board of Directors, by any person or group of persons acting in consort who before that period did not enjoy such interest or representation; but such definition shall not include:

(2) The disposition of facilities or equipment no longer required in the conduct of the business.

C. For the purposes of determining whether it shall consent to such transfer or assignment, the Township Board may inquire into the qualifications of the prospective controlling party, and the Company shall assist the Township Board in any such inquiry. Such inquiry shall be confined to the legal, technical, financial and character qualifications of the prospective transferee or assignee. The ability of the proposed transferee or assignee to perform the obligations of the Company as set forth in this Ordinance shall be the overriding standard by which such inquiry is conducted.

Section 4.5 Expiration of Franchise

A. Upon expiration of the franchise herein granted, the Township shall have the right to require the Company to remove the cable television system from within the boundaries of the community and the Company shall have the obligation to do so within sixty (60) days after notification thereof.

B. The Township shall have the right to purchase the cable television system upon expiration of the franchise term. The Township may, during the fourteenth (14th) year of such franchise term, initiate procedures to determine the advisability and feasibility of the purchase of the system by the Township. Should the Township decide to purchase the system, it shall be at a price not to exceed its fair market value. Should a dispute arise over the determination of the fair market value of the cable television system, the dispute shall be resolved by arbitration as provided in Section 8.7 of this Ordinance entitled "Method for Resolving Disputes".

C. In the period between expiration of the franchise term, and the transfer of the cable television system to a successor company, the Company herein shall continue to provide service to the public as if its franchise were still in effect, but in the capacity of a trustee for its successor in interest and subject to an accounting for net earnings or losses during this interim period, but not to exceed six (6) months.

Section 7.4 Overhead and Underground Construction Requirements

Where existing facilities and equipment exist for the overhead installation of the Company's cable, the same may be utilized. Where such facilities and equipment are unavailable, the Company's cable shall be installed underground. If the Company disputes any such determination or the reasonable time within which it is to be implemented, it may, within twenty (20) days after the issuance of such order, demand that the matter be arbitrated pursuant to Section 8.7 herein.

C. Rates. The following maximum rates and charges to subscribers for installation of equipment and subscriber service have been considered approved and authorized by the Township and in no event shall such rates be increased for a period of two (2) years from and after the date of the first on-line subscriber. tized as an expense and a return shall not be paid on any of these values. If the Township fails to render a written decision either accepting, rejecting or modifying the Company's request within one hundred eighty (180) days of the Company's request, the Company shall thereafter be entitled to put its proposed new rates in effect. This paragraph shall be subject to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.7 of this Ordinance at the full expense of the Company.

D. The Township recognizes that the Federal Communications Commission has presently preempted the field of rate regulation for optional services other than basic subscriber service. In the event the Federal Communications Commission abandons such preemption or delegates to the local franchising authority the power to regulate such other services, then, and in such event, any increase of such rate shall be subject to prior approval of the Township Board consistent with the standards set forth in this Section.

E. The Company shall not, in its rates or charges, or in making available the services or facilities of the cable television system, or in its rules and regulations, or in any other respect, make or grant preference or advantages to any subscriber or potential subscriber to the cable television system, or to any user or potential user of the system; and shall not subject any such persons to any prejudice or disadvantage. This provision shall not be deemed to prohibit promotional campaigns to stimulate subscriptions to the cable television system or other legitimate uses thereof. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to prohibit the establishment of a graduated scale of charges and classified rate schedules to which any customer coming within such classification would be entitled.

F. The Company shall, without charge for installation, maintenance, or service, make single installations of its cable facilities at each fire and police station, all Township municipal buildings, and public and private schools, accredited consistent with accepted academic standards for such schools in the State of Michigan within the Township. Such installation shall be made at such reasonable locations as shall be requested by the Township Board or Boards of Education. Any charge for relocation of such installation or additional outlets thereto at the same location may be made at reasonable cost plus ten (10 percent) percent. No monthly service charges shall be made for distribution of the Company's signals within such publicly owned buildings.

G. The Company may require subscribers to pay for each month of basic service in advance at the beginning of each month. No other advance payment or deposit of any kind shall be required by the Company for basic subscriber service. No deposit or advance payment of any kind shall be charged for the provision of any converter without prior approval of the Township Board.

H. There shall be no charge for disconnection of any installation or outlet. If any subscriber fails to pay properly due monthly subscriber fee or any other properly due fee or charge, the Company may disconnect the subscriber service outlet, provided, however that such disconnection shall not be effected until forty-five (45) days from and after the due date of said delinquent fee or charge and shall include ten (10) days written notice of intent to disconnect delivered to the subscriber in question. If the subscriber pays forty-five (45) days after payment is due and after notice of disconnection has been given, the Company shall not disconnect. After disconnection, upon payment in full of the delinquent fee or charge and the payment of the reconnection charge, the Company shall reinstate the subscriber's cable service.

I. If the Company fails to provide any service requested by subscriber or user, the Company shall, after being afforded a reasonable opportunity to provide the service, not to exceed thirty (30) days, promptly refund all deposits or advance charges paid for the service in question by said subscriber or user. If any subscriber terminates, for personal reasons, any monthly service prior to the end of a prepaid period, a prorata portion of any prepaid subscriber service fee, including the number of days as a basis, shall be refunded to the subscriber by the Company.

Section 8.3 Franchise Fees

A. The Company shall pay, as compensation to the Township, an annual fee of three (3 percent) percent of its gross revenues as herein defined, and an additional two (2 percent) percent of its gross revenues if approved or allowed by the Federal Communications Commission. In the event it is determined that the Federal Communications Commission lacks the jurisdiction to impose a limitation upon franchise fees, or that the limit is raised, then the franchise fee shall be subject to reevaluation. In the event that the parties cannot agree upon a new franchise fee, the matter will be submitted to arbitration. Any resulting award shall be retroactive. It is the intent of the Township to utilize franchise fees, as the Township Board deems necessary, to defray the cost of local regulation of the Company, to support the development of the public access channel, and to generally encourage development of the system.

B. All franchise fees shall be paid semi-annually. Thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Ordinance, the Company shall pay to the Township the sum of—$2,000.00—as an advance against the franchise fee for the current year. Thereafter, and on the semi-annual anniversary of the effective date of this Ordinance the Company shall pay to the Township the required franchise fee for the six (6) month period based upon its gross revenues for the preceding six (6) month period as determined by the Company and subject to audit of the Company's records by a duly authorized agent of the Township. At the time of the payment, the Company shall furnish the Township with an operating report showing the Company's semi-annual gross revenues during the preceding six (6) months and such other information as the Township shall reasonably require with respect to properties and expenses related to the Company's services within the Township for such period. The Company shall keep full, true, accurate and current books of account, which books and records, and all other pertinent books, records, maps, plans, financial statements and other like materials, shall be made available for inspection and copying by the Township upon reasonable notice and upon normal business hours. The Township shall have the right, at its own expense, to audit the records of gross revenue of the Company for any semi-annual period at any reasonable time.

Section 8.4 Equal Employment Requirements

The Company shall not deny service, deny access, or otherwise discriminate against subscribers, channel users, or general citizens on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex. The Company shall strictly adhere to the equal employment requirements of the Federal Communications Commission, as expressed in Section 76.13(a) (8) and 76.311 of Chapter 1 of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The Company shall comply at all times with all other applicable Federal, State, Township and County laws and-or Ordinances, and all executive and administrative orders relating to non-discrimination.

To the extent that existing poles are insufficient for its purpose, or if the Company is unable to negotiate agreements satisfactory to it providing for the use of existing poles, the Company shall have the right to erect and maintain its own poles as necessary for the construction and maintenance of the cable television system, the location of which poles shall be subject to approval by the Township Board and other governmental units having appropriate jurisdiction. The Company shall have the right, authority, power and privilege to attach any of its system facilities to any existing or future poles, towers or other electrical facilities owned by the Township, in a manner which will not interfere with the use of such poles, towers or other electrical facilities by the Township. In the event the attachments, at any time, interfere with the use of such poles, towers or other electrical facilities, the Township will promptly notify the Company to remove the attachment at the Company's expense. The Company hereby agrees to pay to the Township the same fee per year, per pole owned by the Township and used by the Company, arrived at by negotiation and contract with the Detroit Edison Company and-or Bell of Michigan for the use of their poles. This provision shall not be construed as authorizing the Company to utilize the poles owned by the Detroit Edison Company and-or Bell of Michigan, the sole authority for granting a utilization of said poles being vested in said public utilities.

The Company shall extend to the Township free of expenses, joint use of any and all poles owned by it for any proper municipal purposes insofar as may be accomplished without interference with the use and enjoyment of the Company's own wires and fixtures.

Section 8.7 Method of Resolving Disputes

Any matter expressly made arbitratable under provisions of this Ordinance shall be resolved in favor of the party making the determination on such matter, unless arbitration shall be demanded by the other party within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of such determination. Notice of such determination or demand for arbitration shall be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested and by depositing the same in the United States mail with postage fully prepaid thereon addressed as follows, or as the Township or Company may hereafter designate.

If they are unable to do so the arbitrator shall be selected under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The expenses of arbitration and the compensation of the arbitrator shall be borne by the Company and the Township in such manner as the arbitrator shall provide in the decision and award, but in no event shall the Township be obligated to pay more than one-half (1/2) the expenses. The arbitrator shall follow the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association except where in conflict with an express provision of this Ordinance and the decision and award shall be final.

Section 8.8 Records and Report

Not later than May 1st of each year, the Company shall submit, if requested, a written report to the Township Board which shall include:

After notice of hearing, the Township may reduce any and all of the subscriber rates or shorten the duration of the franchise term if the Company fails to provide adequate service or delays construction of the cable television system beyond the deadlines required by this Ordinance as more specifically set forth in subparagraphs A, B, C and D.

A. In the event that its service to any subscriber is interrupted for forty-eight (48) hours or more consecutive hours, except in circumstances for which the prior approval of the interruption is obtain from the Township, the Company shall provide a ten (10 percent) percent rebate of the monthly fees to affected subscribers. The sanctions and penalties set forth herein may be imposed in addition to adjustments made by the Cable Television Committee.

B. In the event that the system fails to meet any technical and performance standards required in Section 7.1 and 7.3 for a full three (3) month period, the Company shall reduce all subscribers' fees by twenty-five (25 percent) percent until all performance standards are met. The Township Board shall notify the Company during the first (1) month of the three (3) month period that the system has failed to meet performance standards.

C. For failure to commence transmission in accordance with Section 6.7, unless the Township Board approves the delay because of reasons beyond the control of the franchisee, the franchise term shall be reduced one (1) year per each three (3) month delay.

D. For failure to complete construction and installation of the cable television system as provided for in Section 5.3, unless the Township Board approves the delay because of reasons beyond the control of the franchisee, the franchise term shall be reduced one (1) year for each three (3) month delay. The Township Board shall notify the grantee during the first (1st) month of the three (3) month period that the system has failed to meet the performance standards.

With respect to this Section 8.9, the Company is not responsible for failure to provide adequate service or for delays in construction which are caused by acts of God, strikes, governmental, or military action or other conditions beyond its control.

Section 8.10 Revocation of Franchise

A. The Township may revoke and cancel any franchise granted pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance in the event of the willful failure, refusal or neglect by the Company to do or comply with any material requirements or limitations contained in this Ordinance.

B. The Township Supervisor may make a written demand that the Company do or comply with any such requirement or limitation. If the failure, refusal, or neglect of the Company continues for a period of thirty (30) days following such written demand without written proof that the corrective action has been taken or is being actively and expeditiously pursued, the Township Supervisor may place his request for revocation of the Company franchise upon the next regular Township Board meeting agenda. The Township Supervisor shall cause to be served upon the Company at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such Township Board meeting, a written notice of his intent to request such revocation, the time and place of the meeting, and a detailed statement of the reasons and grounds for revocation.

C. The Township Board shall consider the request of the Township Supervisor and shall hear any person interested therein, and shall determine, in its discretion, whether or not any failure, refusal or neglect by the Company was with just cause.

D. If such failure, refusal or neglect by the Company was with just cause, the Township Board shall direct the Company to comply within such time and manner and upon such terms and conditions as are reasonable.

E. If the Township Board shall determine such failure, refusal or neglect by the Company was without just cause, then the Township Board may, by resolution, declare the franchise of such Company to be revoked, terminated and forfeited unless there be compliance by the Company within such period as the Township Board may fix. Such resolution shall contain specific findings of fact to justify such revocation.

F. The revocation of the Company's franchise shall in no way affect the rights of the Township under the franchise or any provision of law.

G. In the event the Township revokes the franchise, the Township shall have the right to purchase the cable television system at a price not to exceed its then fair market value. The fair market value shall be determined by the Township in accordance with generally accepted appraisal and accounting principles. Under no circumstances shall any valuation be made for "good will" or any right or privilege granted by this Ordinance. Should a dispute arise over the determination of the fair market value of the cable television system, the dispute shall be resolved by arbitration as provided in Section 8.7 of this Ordinance entitled "Method for Resolving Disputes".

H. In the period between revocation of the franchise and the transfer of the cable television system to a successor company, the Company herein shall continue to provide service to the public as if its franchise were still in effect, but in the capacity of a trustee for its successor in interest and subject to an accounting for net earnings or losses during this interim period, but not to exceed six (6) months.

Section 8.11 Indemnification, Insurance, Liability for Damages and Bonds

A. Except for any liability which may accrue to the Township with regard to its programming on any Township access channel, the Company shall defend, indemnify and hold the Township harmless from all liability, damage, cost or expense (including reasonable attorney fees) arising from claims for injury to persons or damage to property occasioned by reason of any conduct undertaken by reason of this Ordinance, irrespective of any negligence or fault of the Township, its agents or employees, including actions for defamation. The Township shall not and does not by reason of this Ordinance assume any liability of the Company whatsoever for injury to persons or damage to property.

Upon completion of the system in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance, said corporate surety bond shall be released by the Township.

The Company shall maintain during the term of this Ordinance and during any renewal or extension thereof a corporate surety bond running to the benefit of the Township, approved by the Township, and in the sum total of Seventy-Five Thousand ($75,000.00) Dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the Company in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance.

G. If the Company should commit a breach of this Ordinance and not remedy such breach within sixty (60) days after having received written notice from the Township to do so, then the Township, at its discretion may declare a portion of the bond equivalent to the amount of damages sustained by the Township which are directly attributable to such breach forfeited and Company shall thereupon be required: (1) to remedy the breach with reasonable dispatch, and (2) within sixty (60) days of such forfeiture replace the forfeited portion of the bond. Any questions concerning damages or any other issues concerning the within paragraph which cannot be settled by agreement between the interested parties hereto, shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the rules and regulations hereunder and under the supervision of the American Arbitration Association.

H. The Company shall keep the corporate surety bond in full force and effect at all times throughout the term of this Ordinance and during the removal of all poles, wires, cables, underground conduits, manholes, and other conductors, converters, equipment and fixtures subsequent to the termination of this Ordinance. The corporate surety bond shall contain a provision that it shall not be terminated or otherwise allowed to expire prior to sixty (60) days after written notice to that effect is given to the Township Board.

Upon the foreclosure or other judicial sale of all or a substantial part of the cable television system, or upon the termination of any lease covering all or a substantial part of the cable television system, the Company shall notify the Township Board of such fact, and such notification shall be treated as a notification that a change in control of the Company has taken place, and provisions of Section 4.4 of this Ordinance, governing the consent of the Township Board to such change in control of the Company shall apply.

B. Receivership. The Township Board shall have the right to cancel this franchise grant one hundred twenty (120) days after the appointment of a receiver, or trustee, to take over and conduct the business of the Company, whether in receivership, reorganization, bankruptcy, or other action or proceeding, unless such receivership or trusteeship shall have been vacated prior to the expiration of said one hundred twenty (120) days, or unless:

Rogers leads All-Area Class A picks

MARTY KNIGHT

In an era when interest rates are constantly climbing, prices soaring, and living never appears to be easy, there is one constant value in The Associated Newspapers' marketplace, and that is the annual high school Class A All-Area Football Team.

Thanks to players such as Wayne Memorial's Rick Rogers, who is probably the finest running back this area has produced, the ANP grid stock has risen tenfold this season. Rogers, a 6-2, 200-pound senior, who piled up 23 touchdowns this season and scored 31 TDs during his brilliant career at Wayne, was also the inspirational leader on a Wayne team that came within one victory of a perfect season.

Wayne's lone loss was to league rival, Fordson, which has reached the Class A state finals and will play Birmingham Brother Rice on Sat., Nov. 29 in the Pontiac Silverdome for the state championship.

"Rick Rogers is the finest running back I've ever coached," said

Wayne's Floyd Carter who has been on the prep grid coaching scene for the past 12 years. "It is sufficient to say that all of the major colleges in the country are recruiting him."

Rogers' credentials include 1,352 yards gained this season on 184 rushing attempts for a 7.3 yards per carry. He had a total of 145 points scored and he also averaged 45 yards on 30 kickoff; scored 4 TDs in three games and three TDs in two games while also tallied twice in two games.

Among some of the records he holds at Wayne are: Most yards in a single game (236); Most yards season (1,352); Most yards career (2,258); Most TDs for a season (23); Most TDs career (31); Most 100-yard games for a season (7) and Most 100-yard games career (10).

Is it no wonder that Rogers is the most sought after prep in the area if not the entire state?

Grid battles over, now for cage wars

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

Battle scarred and gridiron weary, area high school football coaches can now relax and enjoy football from the sidelines watching collegiate and NFL mentors emit the fume and smoke that the profession creates.

But before we stumble on to the 1980-81 (oh, how the years pass!) basketball, wrestling and swimming seasons, it wouldn't be congruent of us to leave the prep football scene without thanking all the coaches for their cooperation and help.

Only those who pound out this kind of copy each week realize that without coaches' assistance, these pages would not be what they are — tops in local sports coverage. There is no apathy when it comes to sports in this area and it is because coaches, players and fans demand excellence from their local paper and reporters that the staff does respond.

If that were only true about our voters... But then we should reserve those remarks for The Other Side of the Meridian.

There have been some controversial changes in the coaching line-ups of at least two prep cage teams in the area. At Westland John Glenn, former assistant coach to Gordie Davis, Jerry Szukaitis, has been named as head coach.

Szukaitis replaces Dan Henry, whose reported confrontations with the school's administration have led to the courts. Henry is contesting his dismissal as head coach. The action has created a cloud over the Rocket season before it even begins.

Neither side — Henry or the administration — wishes to comment in fear that it may harm the basketball program and inevitably the team and players. However, we'd wish they'd quit their role playing and clear the air officially for the good of all.

Romulus has a good man in Al Wilkerson, a former assistant coach who replaces Rod Hanna. Unfortunately, Hanna also left the scene disenchanted with that school's administration. Although the repertoire doesn't resemble the Glenn scenario, the disgruntled parties have settled their differences without the help of the courts.

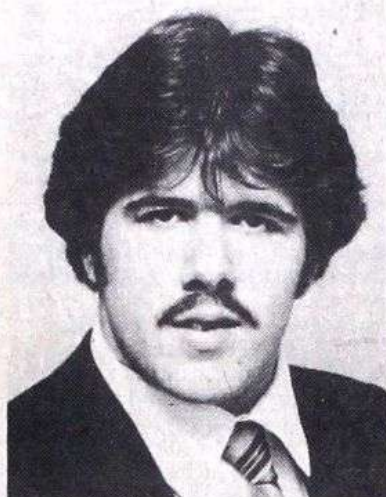

Hanna is doing well as an assistant coach at Wayne State University. In the meantime, Wilkerson isn't wasting any time preparing for the 1980 cage season. If he does half as much for the Romulus basketball program as he did for the track program, the Eagles will enjoy a cage renaissance similar to the "Golden Age" of the Johnny Long era.

Wilkerson resurrected almost singlehandedly an anemic track program at Romulus a few years ago and made it into one of the finest in the area before he decided to take a sabbatical from coaching.

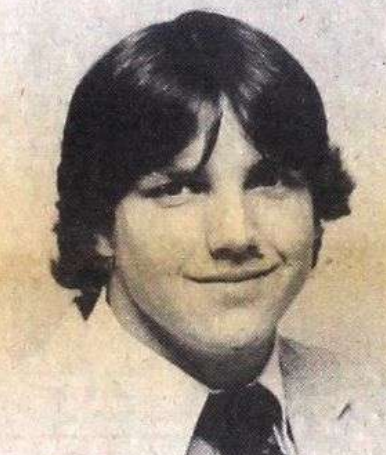

Unshattered by the controversy that comes with his new job, Wilkerson has set about to make his contributions to basketball in the area. He immediately initiated a system whereby he would compile cage stats on individual scoring, team scoring, defense, individual free throw and team free throws on all the teams in the area. (We would publicize the stats).

"I believe it would help create more interest in the sport," Wilkerson said. "I know that there are some coaches who would be nervous about publicizing such facts because it could trigger a 'shooting war', but the benefits will outweigh any negative effect the fact sheet will have."

It never gets dull around here, does it folks?

Coach of the Year

Carter came within one victory of perfection

FLOYD CARTER

Floyd Carter has experienced many kinds of seasons during his 12 years as football coach. Some have been frustrating, some good but this year he can say he had an unforgettable year. Carter came within one victory of perfection.

"You wait a long time for a team like this to come together," said Carter whose Zebras were 8-1 and came within one victory of qualifying for the state playoffs. "We have had some excellent players here at Wayne Memorial in the past, but this has to be one of if not the finest team in the school's history."

Wayne won eight of its nine games during the 1980 campaign. The Zebras' lone defeat was inflicted by undefeated Dearborn Fordson which captured the Great Lakes 8 Conference title and went on to reach the state finals after whipping East Kentwood last week.

Fordson with play Birmingham Brother Rice for the class A state title on Nov. 29 at the Pontiac Silverdome.

Carter is going to remember this season for many reasons. Not only for its 8-1 record, but he and his staff came up with one of the finest running backs in the state in senior Rick Rogers who rewrote the Wayne grid record book.

"Rogers is undoubtedly the finest all-around football athlete I have ever coached," Carter says. "He definitely was the key to this team. But there were also a lot of fine athletes that helped make this team what it was."

Carter has been receiving many post-season honors like being selected as the conference's Coach of the Year; honored as Eastern Michigan University's alumni top coach as well as being named by metropolitan newspapers for honors. The ANP sports staff would like to add yet another honor, picking Carter as The Associated Newspapers'

Coach of the Year."

Carter, graduated from Wayne Memorial and went on to play for Eastern Michigan University. He was a "walk-on" as a freshman and impressed the Huron coaching staff to the extent that they awarded him an athletic scholarship the next three seasons ('66, '67, '68). Because of an eligibility ruling, Floyd was denied an opportunity to play with the EMU nationally ranked team of 1968.

Carter coached at Ypsilanti Lincoln in the fall of 1968, then teamed with Wayne Gorman to help forge the Wayne Memorial teams of 1969, 70 and 71. Floyd was named head coach in 1972.

"I feel we have one of the finest football programs around," Carter said. "I'll match ours with any, and one of the reasons for our success is the strong interest shown by our booster club and administration."

Married to Nancy, the Carters have two children, Jane Ann, 4, and Mark Scott 3.

Despite the departure of a host of blue chip seniors including Rogers, quarterback Rick Covault and defensive standout, Bruce Rize, Wayne should figure prominently in any conference title race or the chase for playoff berth a year from now.

FRANK IANNELLO

Here is a thumbnail sketch of the players, according to schools. And since Wayne Memorial's 8-1 won-lost record was the best in the area for 1980, we'll continue with the Zebras.

RICK COVAULT — A 5-10, 170-pound senior, Rick started two years at quarterback for Coach Floyd Carter's Zebras. One of the best quarterbacks in Wayne's history, his quickness and execution under pressure proved to be the key to Wayne's winning season. Although Wayne didn't pass a lot — with Rogers available who needed it? — Rick still gained over 400 in the air and 200 yards on the ground. "Rick's also a tough hard-nose hitter on defense and a fine pass defender," said Carter.

KEN TAUBE — Also a two-way performer for Wayne, Taube started as fullback and doubled as a nose guard. The 5-9, 170-pound senior has great quickness and strength and is one of the finer blocking fullbacks in the state. Like Rogers and Covault, Taube was a unanimous all-Great Lakes 8 Conference choice.

STEVE RADLEY — A superb pass receiver, Radley is a 6-0, 160-pound senior who has a knack of catching anything thrown near or around him. A split receiver who was utilized as a defensive back, fans still talk about the fantastic one-handed interception against Westland John Glenn in the season finale. A hard-hitter on defense who seems to always be in the right position at the right time, Radley also is being heavily recruited by the colleges.

BRUCE RIZE — A versatile athlete, Rize is a 6-2, 200-pound senior who is ranked among the top linebackers the area has ever produced. Bruce possesses good quickness and the ability to smell out the ball, but most of all when he hits, the ballcarrier knows that he has been hit. A starter as an offensive tackle, Rize was constantly on the field and gave more than 100 percent each game. It is just one reason why colleges and universities such as Michigan, Michigan State and Ohio State have been recruiting him.

ROY BUCHANAN — An unsung hero among many heroes, Buchanan was used as a two-way tackle for his multi-athletic talents. Roy owns plenty of strength and quickness in a 5-10, 175 senior frame that contributed much in a season that has been the best in recent years for the Zebras.

Livonia Franklin and Coach Armand Vigna had their problems on the gridiron this year, but none could blame the performance of Ron Lohman and Tom Pollard who excelled both on defense as well as offense.

LOHMAN — The Patriots' middle linebacker, Ron has been a three-year starter for Coach Vigna. Named to the all-Northwest Suburban Conference team as a junior and now as a senior, Lohman was also picked as Franklin's MVP. He had 18 solo tackles and 99 assists. Ron doubled as a guard on offense.

POLLARD — A 5-10, 180-pound senior, Pollard was picked as a NWSAA defensive halfback. Tom earned 24 unassisted and 58 assists, as well as earning three pass interceptions. "Tom also changed his position on offense to tight end and he is a very acute player on defense. In fact, he was our quarterback on defense," said Vigna.

Westland John Glenn's contributions to this year's grid honor roll include tackle Dale Boone, center Paul Curnutte, halfback Greg O'Neil, who carried the Rocket offensive load, while defensive stalwarts Keith Zimmerman, Fran Iannello and Rick Discher were the keys to the Glenn defense.

ROONE made just about every "all" team in the county. This 6-3, 210-pound senior started two-years for Coach Chuck Gordon both on offense and defense. "Dale is one of the hardest working players I've ever coached," said Coach Gordon. "He has very good strength — he bench presses over 300 pounds — and he's definitely a college prospect." All-League as an offensive tackle, Boone is eyeing one of the Big 10 Conference colleges to continue his athletic career.

CURNUTTE — Considered the Rockets' most physical player, Curnutte was a two-way starter at offensive center and defensive end. "He did a super job at center especially when you consider it was his first year at that position," Gordon remarked.

O'NEIL — Despite missing 3½ games due to injuries, Greg left his mark on the grid scene this season. Although he missed that much time, Greg still managed to rush for 500 yards. When not carrying the ball, he was a defensive halfback. "Greg ran extremely hard," Coach Gordon said, "and he gave us great leadership, and had the speed to break the big play." A tri-captain, O'Neil was named to the all-league as a running back.

ZIMMERMAN — A unanimous all-conference pick as a defensive tackle, Zimmerman is a fierce competitor who kept the Rockets in the chase and in title consideration for the past two years. The opposition ran the other side, fearing to take on this 6-1, 205 pounds senior. A two-way starter at offensive guard and defensive tackle, Keith "is very quick for his size and if there is anyone we're going to miss it's him," said the Rocket skipper.

IANNELLO — Pound-for-pound Iannello is considered the toughest griddier Gordon has ever coached. "Frank is a hitter. He's a competitor, and the word quit isn't even in his vocabulary," says Gordon. The 5-10, 155-pound senior started at linebacker for the past two years and also saw action as a fullback for five games. He was picked all-league as a linebacker.

DISCHER — A leader who made the Rockets click, Discher is considered one of the smartest athletes Gordon has ever coached. "A tri-captain as well as a two-way starter at defensive halfback, Rick quarterbacked the Rockets. He is a 3.8 student whom Gordon says "just doesn't make mistakes and he always gave us great leadership."

Though first year coach Rich Barr found his rookie season a frustrating one at Plymouth Canton — the Chiefs won only one of nine games — his Chiefs were never blown out in any game. And two good reasons why rivals respected the Canton contingent are 6-3, 210-pound senior Craig Gearns and 5-9, 175-pound senior Ed Pierangelino.

GEARNS is tough — it's the best word to describe this outstanding athlete who handled both the tight end and defensive tackle jobs. He wound up with 30 solo hits and 52 assists and was named defensive linesmen of the week twice during the season. "Craig is a very aggressive and hard-nose griddier," said Coach Barr, "and he has a score of colleges looking at him. For his size he's very fast and deceptive and you know he's going to break into the line-up of a major college."

On offense, Gearns hauled in 15 passes for 222 yards and two touchdowns, despite the fact that the opposition used double coverage on him in a number of games.

PIERANGELINO held down one of the linebacking jobs and his contributions included 31 solo tackles and 49 assists. He tackled ballcarriers for losses five times and earned "Defensive Back of the Week" accolades three times. He recovered two fumbles and caused one. "He was our team leader," noted Barr. "He has good range and is a sure and aggressive tackler."

Romulus "fearsome threesome" — Marty Knight, Mark Schick and Randy Champagne — was the backbone to Coach Don Foley's squad this season. Knight, Schick and Champagne have credentials what

Johnson's edges Little Bill's, 4-3

With six weeks of tough skating behind them, the Over 30 Wayne-Westland Hockey teams brace themselves for the stretch run before the break for the holidays.

In a battle involving the Berrington and Bonkowski Division leaders, Johnson Carbonic came out on top by outlasting Little Bill's Trophies, 4-3.

Johnson's led after the first period 2-0 as Ron Johnson and Claud Johnson found the net.

Little Bill's came back in the second period to tie the game with Terry Carley and Eugene Taurainen getting on the scoreboard.

Ron Hays led off the third period with the go ahead goal for Little Bill's.

Mike Fofynski tied the score for Johnson's with 8:11 remaining in the game. Ron Johnson then led his team to victory by netting his second goal of the game with a mere 1:41 left on the scoreboard.

Johnson Carbonic leads the Bonkowski Division while Little Bill's Trophies and Benny's Pizzeria share the lead in the Berrington Division.

Brock Builders managed a third period comeback scoring four goals to beat Futurama 6-4.

Brock's scored the first goal of the game midpoint in the first period with Layne Cardinal netting his first of three goals of the evening. Futurama came right back with three goals as Craig Averill found the net once while Nick Palise tallied twice rounding out the first period scoring.

Both teams scored one goal in the second period with Larry Kaifesh getting Brock's goal and Bob Eggers netting one for Futurama. Brock's came out shooting in the third period with Vern Springer getting a goal with just 2:30 off the clock. The remaining three goals were scored with less than four minutes left in the game. Jay Middaugh got the game tying goal for Brock's while Layne Cardinal broke loose for his second and third goals to clinch the victory.

Jake's Lounge outskated Extra Point Bar 5-3 for its second win of the season. Jake's took the lead as Al Farina scored his first goal of the year. Less than one minute later, Ed Spontack netted his first of three goals in the game. With 1:15 remaining in the first period Phil Cerne scored to give Jake's a 3-1 lead. Spontack found the net for his second goal midway in the second period. Extra Point applied pressure early in the third period pulling within one goal. With 8:40 left in the game Spontack found the crease again, getting his third goal and securing the win for Jake's. Defenseman Jim O'Gorzaly had an excellent game for Jake's by assisting on four of the five goals scored.

Dave Fawkes scored Extra Point's first period goal while Greg Piscopink and Nelson Vanderburgh each netted one tally in the third period.

In a contest between the Jock Shop and Tastee Freeze, the Jock Shop had a little extra going for them as they held off the Freezers 5-4.

Jerry Townsend and Jerry Robertson got single tallies in the first period to give the Jock Shop a 2-1 lead. Midway in the second period Bob Murray added another goal for the winners. Jerry Peterson scored early in the third period while Ron Wojewski got what turned out to be the winning goal with 8:56 remaining in the game.

Ernie Kelm put Tastee Freeze on the scoreboard early in the first period. After being held scoreless in the second period, Tom DiLaura scored with only three minutes off the clock in the third period. With less than three minutes left in the game Joe Soukup and Al Pulk each rattled the net, only to fall one goal short of a tie.

Benny's Pizzeria had no trouble skating past Etronic, 7-2. Dave Zajac led Benny's by scoring two goals and assisting another. Chuck Jennett started things off for Benny's with a single tally while Zajac added two more in the first period.

Tom Bryans and Ron Brock each scored in the second period. Ray Schemanske and Moe Paquette rounded off the scoring for the winners.

Etronic did its scoring in the second period on single tallies by Keith Middaugh and Marv Borycki. Sunday, Nov. 23, Extra Point Bar will take on Johnson Carbonic at 6:30 p.m.; Benny's Pizzeria will run up against the Jock Shop at 8 p.m. and Tastee Freeze plays Futurama at 9:30 p.m. All three contests will be played at Westland.

Over in the Wayne Rink, Brock Builders and Jake's Lounge will meet at 9 p.m., while Little Bills Trophies will clash with Etronic at 10:30 p.m.

are second to none.

KNIGHT is a 5-11, 180-pound senior quarterback who completed 122 of his 227 passes for a phenomenal 1,211 yards and six touchdowns this season. Marty's two-year total is 334 attempted passes for 172 completions for a grand total of 1,727 yards and 7 TDs. On defense, he saw limited duty as a halfback. He picked off three passes. "Marty stepped in at QB the middle of last year and gave us a dimension to our offense we never expected to have," said Coach Foley. "As he played more he developed the ability to find the secondary receiver which made him more confident and a complete passer. Although our offense was geared to dropback, Marty is a good scrambler and runner."

Foley considers his protege' as a very good small college QB prospect.

SCHICK was Knight's favorite receiver. A 6-3, 180-pound senior split end, Mark was a two-year starter who caught 62 passes (a school record) for 584 yards and three touchdowns. Schick managed to catch eight or more passes in a game and he had 20 first down catches on the season. His two-year pass reception total is 85 receptions for 774 yards, also a school record. Schick also played defense and finished up with 30 solos and 21 assists and led the team in pass interceptions with three.

"Though not exceedingly fast," said Foley, "Mark has that knack or ability to get open. Once his hands are on the ball, you can consider it caught. He is a fine team player and equally a fine young man, and he definitely is a college prospect."

CHAMPAGNE is the team captain and his 6-2, 190-pound senior who doubled as a linebacker and guard led the area with solo tackles. He had 68 of them. He also had 28 assists, three fumble recoveries and those figures represent only 7½ games. (Randy suffered an injury that kept him sidelined for a couple of matches). His two-year totals represent 105 solos and 63 assists.

"Randy is an excellent blocker," said Foley, "and a very good pulling guard. He's also a very devoted team player and was the hear of our defense as well as offense. We always went to him when he needed a big play. It really has been a pleasure coaching this fine athlete." Belleville showed signs this year returning to the grid prominence it once enjoyed in the early sixties. Coach Michael Colletta wound up with a three-game winning streak at the end of the campaign and also finished in the first division in the Suburban 8. He can offer thanks to such players as Keith Gates, Steve Cook, Mike Sampson, Rod Meister, Ron Little and Scott Forster for the renaissance.

GATES — A junior who rushed for 1,086 yards in 178 carries for a 6.0 average, Keith is considered "the finest running back to come along in some time at Belleville High," according to Colletta. He scored two TDs and he is also deadly without the ball as a blocker. Named as a first string all-Conference performer, Keith will probably be one of the most productive players in the school's history a year from now.

COOK — A devastating blocker and the Tiger's leading tackler, Cooke is another one of those versatile athletes who has gained recognition as a wrestler as well. He had 52 solo tackles and 88 assists and he was named to the first team all-league. He is equally able as a fullback or a linebacker. A 3.5 scholar, Cook is being recruited by many schools.

"Steve is a hard-running and great blocking fullback," Colletta said. "He was our defensive signal-caller and a team captain."

SAMPSON had the dual role of safety-quarterback this season for the Tigers. He led the offense again. He completed 36 out of 66 pass attempts for a total of 544 yards and 2 TDs. He was named as a second string quarterback in the tough Sub 8 Conference.

"Mike is one of the finest option QB's in the state," said Colletta. "He is a fine passer and an outstanding runner. A senior captain and a two way performer, his services will be missed a year from now."

MEISTER — Another all-around athlete whose 21 receptions for 402 yards were among the tops in the area, Rod averaged 19.4 per catch. A defensive standout at safety, Meister had three interceptions and was a key figure in the Tiger defensive secondary.

"Rod is an outstanding college football prospect," coach Colletta said. He has great hands."

LITTLE — A 220-pound, 5-10, defensive tackle, Little was considered the Tigers' strongest player. He has a maximum bench press of 315 pounds and finished the season with 38 unassisted and 64 assists. He made plays from sideline to sideline and "is a strong player who can pursue the football. Many of the teams we faced ran away from his side," said Colletta.

FORSTER — A fine blocking tight-end and a big play griddler on defense, Forster had 42 solos and 51 assists as well as two fumble recoveries for the season. A 6-3, 210 pound tight end who also played defense at end, Scott has been a regular for the past two years.

"Scott is a versatile athlete who played power football equally as well as option football for us," said Colletta.

Plymouth Salem's contributions to this year's mythical All-Area squad include John Penders, Dave Skone, Grag Staron, Mark Kitz, Brian Lewandowski and Steve Szilagyi. PENDERS is considered the Rocks' best offensive lineman. A 6-0, 190-pound senior he lettered as a junior. "John's a very unselfish player and very coachable," said Salem Coach Tom Moshimer. "We switched him from guard to center to boost our line and it paid off." Penders was voted offensive lineman of the week twice and player of the week once for the Rocks.

STONE, a 5-9, 170-pound senior halfback, was the key to the Rock option attack. A hard runner who could effectively block when needed, Dave rolled up 312 yards on 55 carries for an average of 5.7 per carry. Selected offensive back or player of the week five times, Skone also doubled as a defensive back and finished with 68 tackles or assists. He had two interceptions and was named defensive back or player of the week four times.

STARON — A 6-1, 210-pound senior tackle who is a two-time letterwinner doubled as a defensive back when not playing offense. Named to various "All" teams in the area, Greg has the credentials to play collegiate ball this fall, and many expect him to wind up in the Big 10.

KITZ is the most consistent Salem pass receiver. The 5-9, 150-pound senior tight end grabbed nine passes for two touchdowns for a 15.5 yard average. He also caught two point-after. Mark's blocking ability enabled the Rocks to run the option to the tight end side. According to Moshimer, Kitz was also a standout on defense where he was chosen defensive lineman of the week three times. "Mark has become very effective against the run and the pass over the past two years," Moshimer continued. "Mark also has the most hatches on the team." Kitz also was in position to pick off two interceptions.

LEWANDOWSKI was a three-way player for the Rocks. Used as a running back, a defensive back, Brian also was the team's kicker. A co-captain who played over injuries this year — he had cracked ribs since the third game and didn't miss a game, Brian had 60 carries for a total of 241 yards and five touchdowns. "Brian could always be counted on in tight situations to get the job done for us," Moshimer said. "He was offensive player of the week five times this season."

On defense, Brian had 62 tackles and assists and one interception. He was named as defensive back of the week five times.

SZUKAGYI — A 190-pound, 5-11 senior linebacker, Steve was a two-way starter for the Rocks. He played guard on offense. Also a two-year letterwinner, Steve started since his junior year and earned recognition as the Rocks' No. 1 linebacker. He blocked two punts, caused two fumbles and had one fumble recovery along with two interceptions. He was named defensive lineman of the week twice and player of the week once.

Wayne skaters grab first place share

Carving out a 6-2 victory over Redford, the Second Street Market Wayne Midgets moved into a three-way tie for first place last week.

Sharing top billing along with Wayne are Garden City and Farmington, which was idle last week. Wayne has piled up a 6-1 won-lost record.

The win featured outstanding goaltending of Frank Cierpial, who holds a 1.2 G.A. average.

Wayne looked disoriented for the first period and a half, giving the puck away deep in their own zone on numerous occasions, then got their act together, (as they found themselves down 2 to zip. They dominated play for the rest of the game, scoring four goals in the third period.

Ten-out-of-the 14 players contributed at least one point in the victory, with the Mac brother's leading the attack.

Eric scored one goal and had two assists, his scoring total to 11 points on the team; Brian notched one goal and one assist and Doug cranked in his first goal of the season from the blue line and added two assists.

Other tallies were scored by Brian Brozowski and Gary Vallance, (their fifth and hard working Don Erhart. Assists were awarded to Captain-Jim Newland, Keith Gilbert, Bob Gorney, Rodney Bleim, Vallance and Brozowski.

On Thursday night, Wayne skated to 4-4 tie against Taylor and enabled them to jump back into first place with 13 points.

Taylor led throughout the game but the determined Midgets would never quit. Wayne outshot the opposition by a 3-1 margin. Taylor's goalie single-handedly shut down Wayne's attack on numerous close in shots and had a lot of help from the goal posts as they were ringing all night.

Brian Brozowski (B. Mac & Rod Bleim) and Gary Vallance (E. Mac & Keith Gilbert) each scored their sixth goals of the season. Terry Kucharski cranked in his second goal of the season (both of which came on power play situations) as Gilbert added his second assist of the contest.

As a prep at Robichaud, Mercer Bryson earned recognition as one of the finest players in that school's distinguished grid history. Now, Bryson (3) is winning similar accolades as a member of Northern Michigan University's outstanding squad. Above Bryson stops Akron fullback Scott Peterson (45) in his track, while teammates Mark Storm (86) and Ray Richards (33) lend a helping hand. Bryson, a defensive back, was in on a total of six tackles during the Wildcats 38-10 victory over the Zips. Northern picked up its ninth win in 10 starts and has concluded its regular season and is waiting a playoff berth.

Is your name in State Police 'Red Squad's' files?

The Michigan State Police have mailed over 32,000 notices to persons whose names were indexed to certain files, commonly referred to as the "Red Squad" files, which had been maintained under the authority of Michigan statutes.

The mailing was done November 12.

On July 24, 1974, a lawsuit was filed in Wayne County Circuit Court challenging the constitutionality of these statutes. As a result, the statutes were declared unconstitutional and were subsequently repealed by the Legislature.

The court has ordered that those persons and organizations whose names were indexed in these files be permitted to receive a copy of their file. Because these files were extensive in nature, many persons and organizations may have been indexed for cross-reference even though no actual file was ever maintained on them.

Consequently, these persons and organizations will soon receive this notice along with those for whom a file was maintained.

In addition, a notice will be published in various newspapers throughout the state on November 23, 1980, and again prior to Thanksgiving Day. Persons who wish to know if their name is indexed to this file may return a coupon from these published notices.

Because of the great number of notices, no telephone inquiries will be accepted and a coupon must be returned in order for the request to be honored. All requests must be received by January 15, 1981.

Should there be a large response to these notices, or should funding be limited, considerable time will be needed to provide copies of these files to those requesting them, according to D-Lt. Norman Smith of the State Police Investigative Services Division at East Lansing.

NEW VOTERS

There are about 31,000,000
Americans potentially qualified to vote for the first time in this fall's election, some by virtue of the lowering of the voting age, others by the voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970, plus those 21 to 24 year olds who have become eligible since the last presidential election.
People are almost unanimous in their approval of Associated Newspapers Classified Ads. That's because they get results they like...cash for good things they no longer need. So when you have something you'd like to sell, (look around now), dial
729-3300 and get fast action.

YOU CAN ALWAYS TELL A "BEST SELLER"

The entire family reads it.

And, why not? There's something for everybody in the classified pages in The Associated Newspapers.

Whether you're buying, selling, renting, leasing, looking for a job or services, you're sure to get quick results for the classified pages!
